At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Moreton and Whaddon in the Cathedral Church of Hereford and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend which occurred on or about the second day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one by the decease of the Reverend Love Robertson the then prebendary all lands tithes and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of patronage) then belonging to the said prebend became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas portions of the tithes which so became vested in us as aforesaid have been annexed to certain benefices and the remainder of the said lands tithes and hereditaments are now in our possession and are not subject to any outstanding lease or grant but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands tithes and hereditaments so in our possession as aforesaid or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands tithes and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands tithes and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable."

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign all or any of the said lands tithes and hereditaments heretofore belonging to the said prebend and so in our possession as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from
