

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mary situate at Liscard in the parish of Wallasey in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Mary situate at Liscard as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Wallasey which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary situate at Liscard as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mary Liscard.'

"And with the like consent of the said William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Liscard, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Wallasey in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the north-east by the eastern boundary of the said parish of Wallasey in the middle of the River Mersey on the north-west by the new parish of Saint James New Brighton within the original limits of the parish of Wallasey aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say on the west and on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James New Brighton from the parish of Wallasey aforesaid at a point in the middle of Marsden-lane opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed 'N. B. St. J. D. C. 1861 No. 1' and placed on the eastern side of such lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the same lane for a distance of five and a half chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the township of Wallasey in the said parish of Wallasey from the township of Liscard in the same parish and extending thence first generally southward and then south-eastward along the said township boundary for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to the point on the south-eastern side of Mill-lane where the same township boundary joins the boundary dividing the said township of Liscard from the township of Poolton-cum-Seacombe in the parish of Wallasey aforesaid and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the last-mentioned township boundary for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the footpath leading from Poolton into Liscard-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said footpath for a distance of ten and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Liscard-road aforesaid and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Martin's-lane and extending thence first north-eastward and then northward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Green-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Rice-lane and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of six and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Trafalgar-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-four and a half chains or thereabouts to its north-eastern end on the shore of the River Mersey aforesaid and continuing thence still north-eastward and in a direct line to the eastern boundary of the said parish of Wallasey in the middle of the River Mersey as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forth-
