In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of Thomas Gresham, of No. 24, Basinghall-street, in the city of London, Solicitor, a Bankrupt. Before Mr. Registrar Murray, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 30th day of April, 1878, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy, has been realized, as shown by the statement annexed thereto, but from the insufficiency of the assets realized no dividend had been declared, no statement of affairs having been filed, and the bankrupt not having surrendered, the Court being satisfied that it
