WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Shipton Thorpe, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever. Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments for and in respect of the period intervening between the fourteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land containing one acre and two roods or thereabouts, situate in the parish of Shipton Thorpe, in the East Riding of the county of York, being part of a close containing six acres three roods and twenty-three perches, known as Gravel Pit Close, and bounded on or towards the north by land formerly belonging to William Battle, but now vested in the Sanitary Authority, on or towards the east by other part of the said close called Gravel Pit Close, on or towards the south by the high-road leading from York to Shipton Thorpe, and on or towards the west by land vested in the trustees of Lord Londeshorough, and which said piece or parcel of land hereby described is more particularly delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured green.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Upwood-with-Great Raveley, in the county of Huntingdon, and in the diocese of Ely, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Upwood-with-Great Raveley, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Upwood-with-Great Raveley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Jarrow, in the county and diocese of Durham, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising one thousand two hundred and fifty-three and one-third square yards (or thereabouts) which has been permanently secured to the same rectory, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said rectory of Jarrow, to meet the said benefactions, one capital sum of one thousand and two hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Jarrow.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Cranbourne, in the county of Berks, and in the diocese of Oxford, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fifteenth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that at if any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of two thousand and five hundred pounds four pounds per centum debenture stock of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, which has been transferred into our name for the benefit of the Incumbent for the time being of the district chapelry and vicarage of Saint James, Bolton, lately formed out of the parish of Calverley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said district chapelry and vicarage of Saint James, Bolton, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said district chapelry and vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Peter, Prickwillow, in the counties of Cambridge, Suffolk, and Norfolk, and in the diocese of Ely, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same consolidated chapelry and benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of three hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fifth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund, to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Peter, Prickwillow, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said consolidated chapelry and benefice according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Peter, Prickwillow: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of three hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

William Purdy, General Manager.

Borough of Birmingham.

Notice of Intention to Lease Tramways.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the authority to them contained in "The Tramways Orders Confirmation Act, 1872 (No. 3)," and of "The Tramways Orders Confirmation Act, 1874," the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Birmingham (hereinafter called "The Lessors"), have constructed a double line of tramway, wholly situate in the said borough, commencing in Monmouth-street at its junction with Colmore-row and Livery-street, and passing thence along Monmouth-street, into and along Snow-hill, Constitution-hill, Great Hampton-street, and Hockley-hill, and terminating in that street, at the borough boundary; and also lines of tramway commencing and forming a junction with the before-mentioned tramway in Monmouth-street, and continuing as follows, viz.:—Partly by a single line and partly by double lines along Monmouth-street, Colmore-row, and Ann-street to the Townhall, then by a double line along Paradise-street, Suffolk-street, Horse Fair, Bristol-street, and the Bristol-road, to the borough boundary. Now, in pursuance of the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, notice is hereby given, that the lessors intend, subject to the consent and approval of the Board of Trade, to demise and lease unto the Birmingham Tramways and Omnibus Company Limited (hereinafter called "The Lessees"), the exclusive right of user by the lessees of the said tramways, and of demanding and taking in respect of the same the tolls and charges authorized by the said "Tramways Orders Confirmation Act, 1872, (No. 3)," or the said "Tramways Orders Confirmation Act, 1874," from the date of the lease up to the 1st day of May, 1885, at the yearly rent of £1,680.

The following is a general description of the of the covenants and conditions to be contained in the intended lease:—

Covenants by the Lessees.

To pay all rates, taxes, and assessments in respect of the tramways, and the use thereof, except income tax on rent.

To construct all carriages so as to comply with the provisions of the said Acts, and to maintain same, and not to run unlicensed carriages.

To observe, conform to, and abide by all by-laws lawfully made by the lessors, and for the time being in force.

Not to employ any driver, conductor, or other person on the said tramways, unless they shall have obtained a license from the lessors.

To provide waiting-rooms.

To publish in their offices, waiting-rooms, and carriages, tables of tolls.

To run at least four carriages every day along the Bristol-road and Hockley lines of tramway to the Townhall, and to run for use of working classes two carriages each way every morning and evening (Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted), at hours to be fixed by the lessors, between half-past five and nine o'clock in the morning, and between half-past five and nine o'clock in the evening.

To keep tramway rails clear and to work tramway so as to cause as little wear and tear thereof, and of the streets and pavements as practicable.

Mutual Agreements between the Lessors and Lessees.

The lessees are to have exclusive right of user of tramways for purposes authorized by the said Acts, and of demanding and taking tolls, subject as therein mentioned. The rights and powers of the Birmingham Canal Company and of the lessors to break up streets and roads in the borough not to be affected, and lessors in certain cases to make temporary tramways, and rent to abate on tramways being stopped for more than seven days.

The lessees failing to run carriages at the times mentioned in the intended lease and in the by-laws, to be liable to a penalty of £10 per day.

The lessors may re-enter on non-payment of rent, or breach of covenants and conditions of lease.

Disputes to be referred to stipendiary magistrate of borough.

The lessees shall be liable for acts of their servants, and make good any injury to tramways and roadways caused by them.

The lessees not to assign, lease, or permit other persons or Companies to run carriages on tramways without lessors' consent.

Covenant by lessors to maintain, repair, and renew tramways and portion of the road.

And notice is hereby further given, that a copy of the intended lease is deposited for public inspection at my office, Temple-street, in the said borough of Birmingham.

Dated this 4th day of June, 1878.

E. J. Hayes,
Town Clerk.

JOHN TAYLOR, Bakewell, Solicitor to the said Executors.

To James Spencer, of Holt, in the county of Norfolk.

TAKE notice, that on the 5th April, 1878, a writ was issued against you in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, in a certain action of Birkbeck v. Spencer, 1878, B., 169, at the suit of Henry Birkbeck, Francis Hay Gurney, William Birkbeck, Henry Ford Barclay, Samuel Gurney Buxton, and John Gurney, claiming to have an account taken of what is due to them from defendant for principal, money lent, interest on advances, money paid to or for the use of the defendant, bills accepted or discounted, commission, or on any other account whatsoever, and costs on an equitable mortgage by deposit of the title deeds and copies of Court Rolls relating to certain land and hereditaments, situate respectively at Holt and Hunworth, both in the county of Norfolk, part thereof being freehold and the residue thereof copyhold, held of the manors of Holt and Hatthill, in Hunworth respectively, which equitable mortgage was made on the 22nd day of October, 1863, in favour of Daniel Gurney, John Henry Gurney, Henry Birkbeck, Francis Hay Gurney, William Birkbeck, and Charles Henry Gurney, and to the benefit of which equitable mortgage the plaintiffs are now entitled, and that the said equitable mortgage may be enforced by foreclosure, and that the defendant may be ordered to execute all such deeds and make all such surrenders as may be necessary to give effect to such foreclosure, and for a receiver of the rents and profits of the said hereditaments respectively. And also take notice, that by an Order of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Charles Hall, the Judge of the said Division to whom the said action is assigned, dated the 14th day of May, 1878, it was ordered that service of the said writ by leaving a copy of the same, together with a copy of this Order, with Mr. James Outlaw, the tenant of the King's Head Inn, situate at Holt, in the county of Norfolk, and by inserting this advertisement once in the London Gazette, once in the Times newspaper, and once in some paper published at Geelong, in the Colony of New Zealand, and once in some paper published at Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, should be deemed good service upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you in the said Chancery Division within four calendar months after such service, the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and judgment may be given in your absence.
