

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of John Stonehouse Williamson, of Sparken Hill Farm, Worksop, in the county of Nottingham, Farmer, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Brougham, acting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Honourable William Cecil Spring-Rice, the Registrar-Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 22nd day of June, 1878, reporting that the bankrupt had not filed any accounts, and did not appear on the day appointed for his public examination, and that so far as he is aware the whole of the available property of the bankrupt had been realized by the late Trustee, and that the proceeds were insufficient to pay the costs and charges of the bankruptcy, as shown by the statement annexed to his said report, and that it had not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupt had since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that in his opinion it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, and upon reading the affidavit of Archibald Reid, sworn the 3rd day of July, 1878, and upon hearing Mr. Aldridge, Official Solicitor on behalf of the said Registrar-Trustee, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that the bankrupt has not filed any accounts, and that he did not appear on the day appointed for his public examination, and that so far as the said Registrar-Trustee is aware the whole of the available property of the bankrupt has been realized by the late Trustee, and that the proceeds were insufficient to pay the costs and charges of the bankruptcy, as shown by the statement annexed to the said Registrar-Trustee's report, and that it has not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupt has since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Stonehouse Williamson has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 11th day of July, 1878.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Glamorganshire, holden at Swansea. In the Matter of John Williams, of the Union Inn, Church-street, Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, Licensed Victualler, a Bankrupt.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 10th day of July, 1878, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, in his opinion, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and that no dividend has been paid in consequence of the insufficiency of the assets realized, and no one appearing to oppose this order, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupt as can, in the opinion of the Trustee, be realized without needlessly protracting the bankruptcy has been realized, and that no dividend has been paid in consequence of the insufficiency of the assets realized, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John Williams has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 16th day of July, 1878.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the County Court of Montgomeryshire, holden at Newtown.
