Harding James Henry.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 31st May, 1878, made ex parte Charles Edward Berrey, in the matter of the National Debt Act, 1870, the following enquiry is directed, that is to say: "An enquiry who is or are entitled to the £734 consolidated £3 per centum annuities and £500 reduced three pounds per centum annuities, standing in the name of George James Berrey, the legal personal representative of John Alexander Berrey, and afterwards transferred to the Commissioners of the reduction of the National Debt and to the dividends due, and to accrue due thereon respectively." Now pursuant to such Order, all persons claiming to be entitled to the funds in such Order mentioned, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 31st day of October, 1878, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, situate No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Tuesday, the 12th November, 1878, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims. It appears by the proceedings that one James Henry Harding, who, in the year 1842, was described as of Ipswich, and is believed to have been then resident there, would, if living, be absolutely entitled to the fund.—Dated this 2nd day of August, 1878.
