

that so far as the Registrar-Trustee is aware the whole of the available property of the bankrupts has been realized by the late Trustee, and that a dividend of three pence in the pound has been paid, as shown by the statement annexed to the said Registrar-Trustee's report, and that it has not been brought to his knowledge that the bankrupts have since the adjudication acquired any further property that could be realized for the benefit of the creditors, and that it is expedient that the bankruptcy should be closed, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said John George Jahn and William Ernest Mehl has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 8th day of August, 1878.

The Bankruptcy Act, 1869.

In the London Bankruptcy Court.

In the Matter of William Robert Lewis and Frank Edward Turner, late of 15, Queen-street, in the city of London, Victuallers and Refreshment-house Keepers and copartners, the said William Robert Lewis now residing at No. 1, Maud-road, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, and the said Frank Edward Turner now residing at 287, City-road, in the county of Middlesex, Bankrupts.

Before Mr. Registrar Spring-Rice, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 6th day of May, 1878, reporting that so much of the property of the bankrupts as can be has been realized, but that no dividend has been paid to the creditors by reason of the estate not having realized a sum sufficient to satisfy the necessary expenses of the bankruptcy, and in the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection it is desirable to close the same, and upon hearing Mr. M. Banes, the Trustee, and reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 30th day of July, 1878, and the affidavit of Harry Egerton Knight, sworn the 18th day of July, 1878, and no one appearing to oppose, the Court being satisfied that so much of the property of the bankrupts as can be has been realized, but that no dividend has been paid to the creditors by reason of the estate not having realized a sum sufficient to satisfy the necessary expenses of the bankruptcy, and in the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection it is desirable to close the same, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said William Robert Lewis and Frank Edward Turner has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 31st day of July, 1878.
