THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

EASTLING FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices acting in the Faversham Petty Sessional Division of the county of Kent, that a Fair has been annually held on the 22nd day of June, in the parish of Eastling, in the said division of the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas the Right Honourable George Robert Canning Lord Harris, and Benjamin Leese, Esq., as lords or owners of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, have consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 22nd day of June, in the parish of Eastling, in the said Division of the said county, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 25th day of October, 1878.

Richard Assheton Cross.
