FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1878.

Foreign Office, November 1, 1878.

THE Marquis of Salisbury, K.G., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received the following Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador in Paris:—

MY LORD, Paris, October 18, 1878.

MONSIEUR WADDINGTON said to me this afternoon that he attached very great importance to securing the co-operation of the French and English houses of Rothschild in placing the finances of Egypt on a sound and satisfactory footing. He had, he told me, spoken very strongly in this sense to Baron Alphonse de Rothschild, the head of the Paris house, and he went on to say that Baron Alphonse had insisted on the necessity of some countenance and support being given by the French and English Governments to the arrangements to be made with regard to the Daira lands which were to be the security for the advances to be made to the Egyptian Government.

Baron Alphonse de Rothschild had (M. Waddington went on to say) suggested an arrangement which had originated with the London house, and which would it appeared be accepted by both the London and Paris houses. This arrangement seemed to M. Waddington to be free from objection, and he wished to recommend it to Her Majesty's Government.

Accordingly, he would request me to convey to your Lordship a proposal from him, that the British and French Governments should assent to the following arrangement, that is to say: "That the Frenchman and Englishman, who are on the Board of Management of the Daira lands, shall be nominated by the two Governments, and these two nominees shall manage the estates with an Egyptian, collect and remit the rents to the Rothschilds."

I have, &c.,
(Signed) LYONS.

The Marquis of Salisbury, K.G.

*Foreign Office,
October 24, 1878.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE received your Excellency's Despatch of the 18th instant conveying a proposition made to you by M. Waddington that the Daira lands, which have been recently surrendered by the family of the Khedive, and which are to be mortgaged as security for the new Egyptian loan, shall be managed by a Commission of three, which shall consist of an Egyptian, of a Commissioner nominated by the English Government, and a Commissioner nominated by the French Government. It is proposed that this Commission shall receive the rents of the mortgaged property, and shall remit the proceeds to Messrs. Rothschild so far as shall be necessary to cover the interest and sinking fund of the new loan.

I have to inform you in reply that Her Majesty's Government accede to the proposal of the French Government.

But they think it desirable to point out that in doing so they do not accept any liability to pay in any contingency interest or sinking fund of this loan. They undertake the proposed nomination in order to furnish to the holders of the loan a security that the person nominated shall not be divested of his functions without their previous assent.

I am, &c.,
(Signed) SALISBURY.

His Excellency Lord Lyons, G.C.B.

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, October 31, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Puerto Rico, stating that in consequence of yellow fever at St. Thomas, a quarantine of ten days will be imposed upon all vessels arriving from thence, but that mail steamers from Europe, which transfer their mails and passengers without communicating with the island, will be exempt from such quarantine.

(H. 6867).

*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
Whitehall Gardens, October 31, 1878.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Tenerife, enclosing the following extracts from a Royal Spanish Decree of the 30th November, 1872, respecting the sanitary treatment to which vessels arriving in Spain are liable:—

“Ships arriving from unhealthy or suspected ports, or that convert through any circumstances their original clean bills of health into foul ones, although they may effect discharges in other clean ports, or complete their voyage, preserve in principle the foul bills of health and character of the said compromised ports they started from as long as they have not purified themselves either abroad or in Spain according to the quarantine which is required by our laws.”

“Every vessel arriving from an unhealthy or suspected port, or that may have been admitted to pratique in other intermediate ports of the same description, which, as soon as a complete discharge shall be effected in a clean port without the quarantine cleansing established by our laws and not communicating afterwards in any suspected or foul port, sails with a new cargo not contagious or in ballast for our ports, if she arrive with a clean bill of health, good hygienic conditions, and without any suspicious incident on board, may be submitted to three days' observation with ventilation and fumigations.”

The same treatment is applicable to a vessel which, leaving in ballast unhealthy or suspected ports and without touching at compromised ports, shall proceed to Spain, arriving with the same conditions as above pointed out.

The Decree in question is still operative and its provisions appear to be literally enforced in the Canary Islands.
