

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 20. to Monday June 24. 1689.

Whitehall, June 22.

This day the Lord Mayor of London, attended with the Sheriffs, presented to His Majesty the following Address.

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commoners of the City of London in Common-Council Assembled, being deeply sensible of Your Majesties great Care and tender Regard for our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and Your particular Favour and Condescension to this City, do render Your Majesty our most humble Thanks for vouchsafing to Communicate to us the several Letters and other Papers which have been now read in this Common-Council, manifesting the progress of Your Enemies in Your Kingdom of Ireland, and also discovering a Conspiracy within this Kingdom of England, to Aid and Abet Your said Enemies in their Design to invade and bring the War upon this Kingdom.

And we most humbly beg Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we will as far as our Power extends, oppose our selves to, and suppress all Designs of that nature, and will search after, disarm, seize, secure, and bring to Justice all Persons concerned therein, or contributing thereto; And we are unanimously, firmly, and unalterably, Resolved and determined to stand by, defend, and maintain Your Majesty and Your Government with the uttermost hazard and expence of our Lives and Estates, against all Persons whatsoever that shall Conspire or Attempt anything against the same.

There has been likewise presented to His Majesty a very Loyal Address from the Tanners of Cornwall, which follows.

To the King and Queen's Most Excellent Majesties.

The Humble Address of Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Tanners in Your Majesties County of Cornwall.

THE Powerful hand of Eternal Wisdom, having by a wonderful Providence, seated Your Majesties on the Imperial Throne of this Realm, and thereby rescued our Religion, restored our Liberties, and removed our languishing Laws; We cannot but with Hearts, as full of Admiration as Gratitude, render our unfeigned Thanks to the King of Kings, for disposing and enabling Your most Sacred Majesties, to be the glorious Instruments in so miraculous a Preservation, which seemed to transcend all humane Expectations: And likewise to Your Majesties, for Your great Care of, and Concern for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, as by Law Established, than which nothing can be more dear unto Us. And now we beg Your Majesties to believe, that we ever will be, as really we are, ready on all occasions, to expose our Lives and Fortunes in Defense of Your Majesties most Sacred Persons, against the Machinations of all Enemies to Your Majesties, and these Nations; which that Your Majesties may Govern long in Peace and Plenty, and be afterwards Crowned with Everlasting Felicity; are, and shall be the Prayers of,

Your Majesties most Faithful, and Most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Signed by above
30000.

Smirna, April 16. Tadic Bei, Uncle to Triben Bassa, who was lately taken near Sophra, and Strangled by order from the Vicer, having his Forces greatly increased by multitudes of Robbers, and other loose People which flocked to him, became so formidable that the Grand Signior sent Nefran Bassa, and a Tefrith Bassa, to suppress him. Tadic engaged with them both, and defeated them; the Tefrith being killed upon the place, and all his Troops cut off and dispersed. Tadic is now Encamped in the Plains of Kara, about 8 days Journey from this City, which hath given us a great alarm, that some have put their Goods on board the Ships in Port; and the Caravans will not adventure to stir from hence for fear of the Forces of Tadic, who now commands all these Countries.

Venice, June 11. The Prince of Brunswicke, and the Prince of Harcourt, are Embarked to pass to the Levant with the Conyoy that is now going from hence with 300 Soldiers, and with Money, Provisions and Ammunition for our Army. By a Vessel come from the Mores we have advice, that the Doge had appointed the general Rendezvous at Porto Parro; and that he had sent Orders to Signior Venier, to Sail with the Squadron under his Command to Scio, to attack 10 Turkish Ships which were in that Port; That Signior Cornaro, Proveditore General of the Mores, had posted a considerable Body of Maynotes and Greeks near Napoli di Malvasia, to hinder the Incursions of that Garrison. The Gallies of Malta being returned from their Expedition on the Coast of Barbary, are now gone towards the Levant, to join the Fleet of this State.

Madrid, June 2. The King having declared his intended Marriage with the Princess Marie Anne of Niebourg, Daughter of the Elector Palatine; Count Mansfeld, who has resided here several years as Ataballador from the Emperor, parted from hence yesterday for Vienna, to Conduct her thither; It's believed he will take his way by Portugal, and from thence by Sea to England. And the Marquis de Leganes is named to carry the Present of Jewels to the new Queen, who, it's hoped, may arrive here about September next.

Warsaw, May 27. The Crown General is gone to Lemberg, where the Forces of this Kingdom are to have their Rendezvous the 23 of the next Month; and the King will part from hence the 31th Instant to be present at it. The Kain of Tartary continued according to our last Advices at Kilianova, but had sent orders to his Troops to be in a readiness to march.

Vienna, June 12. We have advice by an Express from Belgrade, that the Turks were moving towards the River Morava, with a design to pass it; and that Major General Hofkirken had thereupon ordered all the Imperial Regiments quartered on those Frontiers, to march towards the said River to oppose them. Prince Louis of Baden, who is to command the Imperial Army against the Turks, was expected at Belgrade on the 10th Instant. They write from Transylvania, that Major General Hewler was marched towards Cronstadt, to secure the Country on that side against the Incursions of the Tartars. The Imperial Ministers had this week a Conference with the Ambassadors of Poland and Venice about the Affairs of the War; and the Ambassador of Poland has since taken his leave of the Emperor in order to his return home.

Heydelberg, June 14. The Imperialists that were in Garrison here are gone to join the Bavarian Forces; and 500 Men of the Circle of Branconia are come hither in their place. Philipsbourg will be block't up, where the Garrison, consisting of 3500 Men, begins already to want Provisions. We hear from Strasbourg, that the French are going to undermine the great Church there, which makes it believed they intend to treat that City, when they find themselves no longer able to keep it, as they have done Spre, Wormes, &c. which are now nothing but heaps of Ruines.

Frankfurt, June 19. The Imperial Forces pass the Rhine and march towards Creuznach, where some Troops have already posted themselves. The Bavarian Army is Encamped between Bratheim and Philipsbourg; The Troops of Saxony between the Main and the Rhine; and those of Cassil from hence to Cosheim. Great Store of Provisions and Ammunition passes daily through this place for the use of the Forces that are to act on this side, which will now in few days open the Campaign with some great Enterprize. The Landgrave of Hesse entertained yesterday the Duke