

ing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer;

Or direct that such Law or Ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act;

And whereas by an Ordinance enacted by the Legislature of Sierra Leone, the short title of which is "The Extradition Ordinance Sierra Leone, 1878," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Police Magistrate, or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of Fugitive Criminals in the United Kingdom 'under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in and may in the Settlement be exercised and done by any Police Magistrate or Officer acting in his stead, in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals under the said Acts."

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within the Settlement as if it were part of the "Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the settlement;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Settlement of Sierra Leone, without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable Sir Michael Edward Hicks-Beach, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section one of "The Trade Marks Registration Extension Act, 1877," 40 and 41 Victoria, cap. 37, it is enacted that in so far as relates to the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries, but not further or otherwise, section one of the Trade Marks Registration Amendment Act, 1876, shall be construed as if for the words "from and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, there were substituted the words "from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, or such further time as Her Majesty may by Order in Council determine."

Whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the 12th day of December, 1877, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council was pleased, in accordance with the above-recited enactment, to prolong till the 30th day of June, 1878, the time for the registration of trade marks used in the textile industries.

And whereas by another Order in Council, bearing date the 29th day of June, 1878, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, was pleased, in accordance with the above-recited enactment, further to prolong till the 31st day of December, 1878, the time for the registration of such trade marks as aforesaid.

And whereas it is deemed expedient that in so far as regards that portion of the trade marks used in the textile industries which is applied to cotton piece goods, such time should be further extended beyond the said 31st day of December, 1878:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased, in accordance with the above-recited enactment, to prolong till the 31st day of May, 1879, the time for the registration of trade marks applied to cotton piece goods.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1878.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, in the words and figures following, viz.:-

"Whereas by the twentieth section of an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of your Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-nine, entitled 'An Act to provide for the better Government of Greenwich Hospital,' it is among other things enacted, that the regulations for the admission of children into Greenwich Hospital School, shall be vested exclusively in the Admiralty, but any such regulations shall not have effect unless and until they are approved by your Majesty in Council.

"And whereas your Majesty has been pleased, by Orders in Council of ninth August one thousand eight hundred and seventy, sixteenth January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and fourth February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, to approve of certain regulations for the admission of boys into the school.

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable further to promote the entry into the Royal Navy, or Mercantile Marine, of the boys educated and maintained in the school. We beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to sanction the establishment of the following regulations in lieu of those previously authorised:—

"REGULATIONS for the Admission of Boys to Greenwich Hospital School.

"I. The school will consist of one thousand boys, the sons of petty officers and seamen, and of non-commissioned officers and privates of marines, who have served or are now serving in the Royal Navy or Coast Guard, and of other seafaring persons.

"II. All claims for admission to the school will be judged by a Committee of Selection appointed by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in
