And whereas the Lord Bishop of Saint Davids hath made a representation in writing to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

“I the Right Reverend William Basil Lord Bishop of Saint Davids do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Brecon and my diocese of Saint Davids, the vicarage of Saint Davids Brecon, otherwise known as Saint Davids Llanfaes Brecon.

“That contiguous to the said parish of Saint Davids Llanfaes and situate within the limits of the said parish there is a place or district known by the name of Christ's College the boundaries whereof are well known and defined and which place or district is altogether extra-parochial.

“That the said place or district is in no way connected with the parish of Saint Davids Llanfaes in respect to rates of any kind, nor are the inhabitants of such district entitled to any accommodation in the said parish church.

“That the said place or district comprises within it the College of Christ of Brecknock including the site of the church, school-house, buildings, ground and premises belonging to the said College vested in the Governing Body of the said College under or by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her present Majesty chapter eighty-two for the regulation and management and the permanent endowment of the said College.

“That no minister officiating in the said College Church has the spiritual care of the said extra-parochial place or district, and in fact it would appear that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Davids Llanfaes has voluntarily extended his pastoral care to and over such district. And that all baptisms churchings marriages and burials of persons pertaining to such district have taken place in the church of the said parish of Saint Davids Llanfaes.

“That the population of the said extra-parochial place or district of Christ's College amounts according to the last census of 1871 to one hundred and seven persons.

“That the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have agreed to assign to the said vicarage of Saint Davids Llanfaes the whole rectorial tithes of the said parish of Saint Davids Llanfaes formerly part of the endowments of the Archdeaconry of Brecon in lieu of (as at present) such a portion thereof as suffices to make up the net income of the said vicarage to three hundred pounds per annum on condition of the said extra-parochial place or district being annexed to the said parish of Saint Davids Llanfaes.

“That it appears to me that the whole of the said extra-parochial place or district of Christ's College may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter 106 and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter 49 be with advantage annexed to the said parish of Saint Davids Llanfaes.

“That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rent-charges and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested. And I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of the Venerable Henry de Winton Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry of Brecon the patron of the said vicarage of Saint Davids Llanfaes to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consent to Her Majesty in Council.
