*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 24, 1879.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 24th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
May 5, 1879.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 26th of May instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations should be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to his Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be opened for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

MOUNT EDGCUMBE,
Lord Chamberlain.

Windsor Castle, May 13, 1879.

THIS day the Right Honourable Sir Charles Whetham, Lord Mayor of London, Mr. Alderman Lawrence, Mr. Alderman Nottage, Alderman Sir F. W. Truscott, Mr. Sheriff Burt, Mr. Sheriff Bevan, the Recorder, the Town Clerk, the Common Serjeant, the Remembrancer, the Under Sheriffs, Mr. George Shaw (the Mover), and Mr. Alderman Cotton, M.P. (the Seconder of the Address), and upwards of fifty Members of the Common Council, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was handed to Her Majesty:—

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.
The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, desire to offer to your Majesty our most cordial congratulations on the marriage of His Royal Highness Arthur William Patrick Albert, Duke of Connaught and Strathearne, and Earl of Sussex, Duke of Saxony, Prince of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, K.G., your Majesty's third Son, with Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise Margaret Alexandra Victoria Agnes, third Daughter of His Royal Highness Prince Frederick Charles Nicholas of Prussia, and Great Niece of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Germany. Cherishing a sincere and affectionate interest in all that relates to the happiness of the members of your Majesty's Royal House, we desire, on this auspicious occasion, to express our deep sense of the importance of a union which connects by another tender tie two great countries, and which we fervently hope may have the happy effect of cementing more firmly than ever the alliance now existing between the two leading Protestant Powers of Europe, kindred in blood, and already in general sympathy in religi-
