FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 42.

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT, 8 A.M.—8 P.M.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 42, contains a special exception to the effect that, in the factories and workshops, or parts thereof, to which the exception applies, the period of employment for young persons and women, if so fixed by the occupier and specified in the notice, may, except on Saturday, begin at 8 A.M. and end at 8 P.M., and on Saturday may begin at 8 A.M. and end at 4 P.M., or where it begins at 7 A.M. may end at 3 P.M., and the period of employment for a child in a morning set may begin at the same hour, and the period of employment for a child in the afternoon set may end at the same hour;

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section;

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that the non-textile factories and workshops of the classes, or the parts thereof, mentioned in the schedule hereunder, by reason of the customs and exigencies of the trades carried on therein require the extension thereto of this exception;

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend the said exception to factories and workshops of such classes.

This Order shall come into effect on 14th May, 1879, and shall, unless previously revoked, continue in force until 31st December, 1882, and no longer.

Home Office, Whitehall, 14th May, 1879.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 Vict., c. 16, s. 58.

NIGHT WORK. MALE YOUNG PERSONS

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 58, contains a special exception to the effect that nothing in the Act shall prevent the employment, in factories to which the exception applies, of male young persons during the night, if they are employed in accordance with the following conditions:

- (1.) The period of employment shall not exceed 12 consecutive hours, and shall begin and end at the hours specified in the notice in the Act mentioned; and
- (2.) The provisions of Part I of the Act with respect to the allowance of times for meals to young persons during the period of employment shall be observed, with the necessary modifications as to the hour at which the times allowed for meals are fixed; and
- (3.) A male young person employed during any part of the night shall not be employed during any part of the 12 hours preceding or succeeding the period of employment; and
- (4.) A male young person shall not be employed on more than 6 nights, or in the case of blast furnaces or paper mills 7 nights, in any two weeks.

And the said Act declares that the provisions of the Act with respect to the period of employment on Saturday, and with respect to the allowance to young persons of 8 half holidays in every year or of whole holidays in lieu of them, shall not apply to a male young person employed in day and night turns in pursuance of this exception;

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories referred to in the said section:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in non-textile factories of the class men-
