By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord Chancellor.
Lord President.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

2. The Orders of Council described in the Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked.

3. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Orders, or either of them, before the date when this revocation takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Orders, or either of them.

SCHEDULE.

Order of Council of 3 April, 1879, permitting cattle brought from the United States of America to the Port of London to be transhipped in the Victoria Docks for conveyance to the Foreign Cattle Market at Deptford.

Order of Council of 8 May, 1879, permitting cattle brought from the United States of America to the Port of London to be transhipped in the Millwall Docks for conveyance to the Foreign Cattle Market at Deptford.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of May, 1879.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord Chancellor.
Lord President.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

2. Words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Foreign Animals Order.

3. Notwithstanding anything in The Foreign Animals Order or in any other Order of Council, animals brought from the United States of America to the Port of London may be transhipped in the River Thames or in any Dock within the Port of London approved by the Privy Council from the vessel in which they are brought into another vessel for conveyance to the foreign animals wharf, known as the Foreign Cattle Market at Deptford, subject to the following conditions:

First. That the vessel (in this Order called the landing-vessel) into which the animals are transhipped be provided by the Local Authority for the City of London, and be specially fitted and appropriated for the purpose of conveying such animals.

Second. That the Local Authority for the City of London have received the special permission of the Commissioners of Customs so to employ the landing-vessel under this Order.

4. Those animals shall be transhipped in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs; and an Officer of Customs shall remain in charge of the animals on board the landing-vessel until its arrival at the Foreign Cattle Market at Deptford.

5. The landing-vessel shall proceed direct to that market, and the animals shall be landed there in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs.

6. The landing-vessel shall not be used for any other purpose during the time of its being so appropriated, and shall, immediately after each occasion of use, and before being again used, be cleansed and disinfected in manner provided respecting vessels by Article 5 of The Cleansing and Disinfection Order of 1878.

7. Animals so transhipped shall continue to be deemed foreign animals.

8. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, the owner or consignee of the animals, and the owner and the master of the landing-vessel, and in the case of the animals being transhipped in a Dock the Company or person owning the Dock, each according to and in respect of his or the Company's own acts or omissions, shall be deemed guilty of an offence against The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of May, 1879.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord Chancellor.
Lord President.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as The Schleswig-Holstein Order of 1879.

2. This Order extends to England and Wales and Scotland only.

3. In this Order words have the same meaning as in The Foreign Animals Order.

4. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, except as regards the recovery of any penalty incurred thereunder before that day.

5. Notwithstanding anything in the Order of Council dated the seventeenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, relating to (among other things) cattle brought
