AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 15th day of August, 1879.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the sixteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Foreign Animals Order.

2. Notwithstanding anything in The Foreign Animals Order or in any other Order of Council, animals brought from the United States of America to the Port of Glasgow may be transhipped in the Firth of Clyde or in the River Clyde from the vessel in which they are brought into another vessel for conveyance to the foreign animals wharf as defined by Order of Council dated the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, subject to the following conditions:

First. That the vessel (in this Order called the landing-vessel) into which the animals are transhipped be specially fitted and appropriated for the purpose of conveying such animals.

Second. That the owner, agent, or charterer of the landing-vessel has received the special permission of the Commissioners of Customs so to employ the landing-vessel under this Order.

3. Those animals shall be transhipped in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs; and an Officer of Customs shall remain in charge of the animals on board the landing-vessel until its arrival at the foreign animals wharf.

4. The landing-vessel shall proceed direct to that wharf, and the animals shall be landed there in the presence and under the supervision and control of an Officer of Customs.

5. The landing-vessel shall not be used for any other purpose during the time of its being so appropriated, and shall, immediately after each occasion of use, and before being again used, be cleansed and disinfected in manner provided respecting vessels by Article 5 of The Cleansing and Disinfection Order of 1878.

6. Animals so transhipped shall continue to be deemed foreign animals.

7. If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, the owner or consignee of the animals, and the owner and the master of the landing-vessel, each according to and in respect of his own acts or omissions, shall be deemed guilty of an offence against The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878.
