

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate at Norwood in the county of Surrey and now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the second day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven and made between Sir John George Tollemache Sinclair of Thurso Castle Caithness in North Britain Baronet of the one part and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part certain lands and hereditaments situate at Norwood in the county of Surrey, being the several pieces or parcels of land more particularly described in the said indenture and therein stated to contain altogether nine acres two roods and eleven perches or thereabouts with two messuages or dwelling-houses erected on part of the same lands known as Nos. 1 and 2 Rushmore became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in possession but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands titles rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the mean time to invest the said proceeds in some government or parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediate from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels Bromley within the metropolis of London in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it appears to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels Bromley which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council dated the twenty-first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of August following for uniting (as therein mentioned) two benefices situate within the city and diocese of London to wit the benefice (being a rectory) of Saint Mary-le-Bow with Saint Pancras Soper-lane and All Hallows Honey-lane and the benefice (being a rectory) of All Hallows
