War Office, September 5, 1879.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it has been represented to Us that lately the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of the City of London opened a Fund at the Mansion House of the city of London for the relief of the widows and orphans of the soldiers of the British Army and others who fell at Isandlana and at Rorke's Drift, and that the object of this fund was afterwards extended to the relief of the widows and orphans of the soldiers of the British Army and others who had fallen, or might yet fall, during the Zulu War, and that this fund is called or known as the Zulu War Sufferers' Fund, and the same is hereinafter called the Mansion House Zulu War Fund;

And whereas it has also been represented to Us that the Lord Mayor, as the Treasurer of the Mansion House Zulu War Fund, is willing to hand over to Our Commissioners of the Patriotic Fund, for distribution, the money which he had received on account of the Mansion House Zulu War Fund, and which remains unapplied, in the event of the powers of Our said Commissioners being extended so as to meet the cases of sufferers by the Zulu War;

And whereas it has also been represented to Us that lately a Committee of Officers of Our Army, Navy, and Militia Forces, and others Our subjects opened a Fund for the relief of the Widows and Orphans of all men belonging to our Troops killed on the 22nd and 23rd of January, 1879, in the Zulu War, and that this Fund is called or known as the Isandlana and Rorke's Drift Fund;

And whereas it has also been represented to Us that afterwards the same Committee opened another fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of all officers and men belonging to Our Troops or Navy who had fallen, or might yet fall, during the Zulu War, and that this fund is called or known as the General Fund, and the same is hereinafter called the Zulu War General Fund;

And whereas it has also been represented to Us that the said Committee have decided, should fresh powers be given to Our Commissioners of the Patriotic Fund, to hand over to Our said Commissioners for distribution the balance of the money received by the Committee;

And whereas it has seemed good to Us that Our Commissioners of the Patriotic Fund should accept the moneys belonging to the said three several Funds and undertake the distribution thereof.

Now therefore, Our will and pleasure is that

Our Commissioners of the Patriotic Fund shall accept such moneys belonging to the said three several Funds (namely):—

The Mansion House Zulu War Fund,
The Isandlana and Rorke's Drift Fund,
The Zulu War General Fund,

as shall be handed over to them, and shall administer and distribute the same, subject to the following conditions (namely):—

1. That the money belonging to each Fund be transferred to Our said Commissioners in good and lawful manner and form.
2. That a separate account of the money belonging to each Fund be kept by Our said Commissioners.
3. That each Fund do bear the expense (if any) of its own administration.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that subject to the conditions aforesaid, the acceptance and the administration and distribution of the moneys belonging to the said three several Funds by Our Commissioners of the Patriotic Fund shall be made and conducted on such terms and conditions, for such purposes, and in such manner, as shall be consistent with the terms of the public advertisements severally announcing the opening of those Funds, and subject thereto as We may from time to time be pleased to direct, and subject thereto as Our said Commissioners think fit.

Given at Our Court at Osborne, this twenty-second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the forty-third year of Our reign.

By command,

Fred. Stanley.

FURTHER REGULATIONS AS TO POST OFFICE MONEY ORDERS.

WHEREAS certain Regulations relating to the payment of Post Office Money Orders, presented for payment by or through Bankers, have been from time to time made and issued: and whereas it is expedient to make and establish other Regulations relating thereto.

Now, I, John James Robert Manners (commonly called Lord John Manners), Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, in exercise of all powers enabling me in this behalf, by and with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order, direct, and declare, as follows, that is to say :—

1. Any Money Order made payable to any person or persons whomsoever at a Post Office in any city, town, or place within the United Kingdom may be presented for payment by or through any Banker or Bankers, either at such Post Office at which the same is made payable, or at the Chief Money Order Office in London, notwithstanding that the form of receipt on such Money Order may not bear any signature purporting to be the signature of the person or persons to whom such Money Order is made payable, provided that the name of the Banker or Bankers by or through whom such Money Order is presented for payment be written or stamped upon the face thereof, and the name of such Banker or Bankers so written or stamped as aforesaid shall be accepted at such Post Office or Chief Money Order Office as a sufficient receipt for the amount of such Money Order.

2. In all cases where a Money Order is presented, in manner aforesaid, for payment at the Chief Money Order Office in London, by or through any Banker or Bankers having an account at the Bank of England, payment of such Money Order may be forthwith made by means of a transfer of the amount of such Money Order from the account of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General at the Bank of England to the account at the same bank of such Banker or Bankers, by or through whom such Money Order is presented for payment as aforesaid; but such payment shall nevertheless be subject to the subsequent verification of such Money Order, and shall be made upon the express condition that if, upon examination, it shall appear to Her Majesty's Postmaster-General that payment of the amount or any part of the amount of such Money Order has been incorrectly or improperly made or allowed to such Banker or Bankers as aforesaid, the amount so incorrectly or improperly paid or allowed may be deducted by Her Majesty's Postmaster-General from any moneys which may thereafter become payable to such Banker or Bankers for or on account, or in respect of any Post Office Money Orders.

3. In every case where payment is made under the foregoing Regulations of any Money Order so presented for payment by or through a Banker or Bankers in manner aforesaid, such Money Order and all liability to pay the same shall be absolutely and to all intents and for all purposes discharged by such payment, notwithstanding any fraud, error, mistake, or loss which may have been committed or have occurred in reference to such Money Order, or the procuring or obtaining the payment thereof.

4. These Regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of September, 1879, and thereupon and thenceforth the Regulations bearing date the 7th day of April, 1848, shall cease and be discontinued.

Dated this seventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

John Manners,

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

I hereby signify the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to the foregoing Regulations,

William Law,

Assistant-Secretary to the Treasury.

Whitehall, June 25, 1879.

THE Lord Chancellor has appointed George Price Pearce, of Iver, in the county of Bucks, Gentleman, to be a Commissioner to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England.

EXPLOSIVES ACT, 1875 (38 Vic., c. 17).

WHEREAS by Section 68 of the above-named Act, it is provided as follows :—

"The Council of any Borough which is assessed to the county rate of any county by the Justices of such county, and the Commissioners of any Improvement District, may, by order of a Secretary of State made upon the application of such Council or Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, be declared to be a Local Authority for the purposes of this Act, and thereupon shall become a Local Authority accordingly for such part of their borough or district as is not included in any harbour, to the exclusion of the Justices in Petty Sessions."

And whereas an application has been made to me by the Council of the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, to be declared a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act, in accordance with the provision aforesaid.

Now I, the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby, in virtue of the powers contained in the said section, declare the Council of the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne to be a Local Authority for the purposes of the said Act.

Richard Assheton Cross.
