“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint John Ipswich, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Saint Margaret Ipswich in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Norwich which is bounded on the north by the parish of Westerfield, on the north-east by the parish of Rushmere Saint Andrew, on the east by a certain detached portion of the parish of Saint Helen Ipswich on the south by the parish of Saint Clement Ipswich on the west partly by the main body of the parish of Saint Helen Ipswich aforesaid all which said parishes are in the county and diocese aforesaid, and upon all other sides that is to say on the remaining part of the west and on the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Helen Ipswich from the parish of Saint Margaret Ipswich aforesaid at the point where Woodbridge-road is joined by North Hill-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its present north-western end and continuing thence still north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Cemetery-road such point being distant about seven and a half chains to the south-west of the gates at the southern entrance to the Ipswich-Cemetery and extending thence that is from the last-described point north-eastward along the middle of the said cemetery road for a distance of about seven and a half chains aforesaid to the said cemetery gates and extending thence for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts first north-eastward then north-westward then south-westward then north-westward and finally north-eastward along the middle of the main road through the said cemetery (which said road divides the consecrated portion of the same cemetery from the unconsecrated portion thereof) to the gates at the northern entrance to the same cemetery where the last-described road joins the roadway leading from the said cemetery into the Tuddenham-road and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned gates westward along the middle of the last-described roadway for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Tuddenham-road aforesaid and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret Ipswich from the parish of Westerfield aforesaid.”

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbent of the said parish of Saint Margaret Ipswich out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis,” it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as hereinafter specified:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight
