GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board amending Regulations with respect to the Duties of Officers in District Schools.

To the Boards of Management of the several School Districts named in the Schedule to this Order ;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by certain Orders, addressed by the Poor Law Commissioners, the Poor Law Board, and the Local Government Board, respectively, to the Board of Management of each of School Districts named in the Schedule to this Order, regulations are prescribed with reference to the duties of Officers appointed by such Board of Management ;

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made as hereinafter mentioned ;

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby order as follows with respect to each of the School Districts named in the Schedule to this Order ;

ARTICLE 1.—In every case not otherwise provided for by the Orders in force in the School District, every Officer appointed by the Board of Management shall perform his duties in person, and shall not intrust the same to a deputy, except with the special permission of the Local Government Board on the application of the Board of Management.

ARTICLE 2.—Every Medical Officer shall be bound to visit and attend personally, as far as may be practicable, the children intrusted to his care, and shall be responsible for the attendance on them.

ARTICLE 3.—Every Medical Officer shall, as soon as may be after the issuing of this Order, or after his appointment, name to the Board of Management some legally qualified Medical Practitioner to whom application for medicines or attendance may be made in the case of his absence from home, or other hindrance to his personal attendance, and who will supply the same at the cost of such Medical Officer ; and the name and residence of every Medical Practitioner so named shall be forwarded to the Superintendent of the School by the Board of Management.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a certain house and premises which have been permanently secured to the vicarage and benefice of Saint Paul, Langleybury, in the county of Hertford, and in the diocese of Saint Alban's, as a parsonage or house of residence for the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage and benefice of Saint Paul, Langleybury, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year : Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Welland, in the county of Worcester, and in the diocese of Worcester, one capital sum of six hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Welland.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a certain house and premises, comprising four thousand eight hundred and forty square yards, or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint James, Dale Head, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, as a parsonage or house of residence for the same, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint James, Dale Head, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year; Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Mark, Albert-road, in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Albert-road, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Albert-road: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of London, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Mark, Albert-road aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Mark, Albert-road.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a clear yearly rent-charge of thirty pounds, which has been permanently secured to the vicarage of Saint Philip and Saint James, Escot, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Philip and Saint James, Escot, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Peter, Allendale (otherwise Allendale), in the county of Northumberland, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and sixty-six pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate, out of our said common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Allenheads (or Allendale), one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the costs of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Saint Peter, Allenheads (or Allendale).: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and sixty-six pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Luke, Middlestown, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same consolidated chapelry and benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, and in consideration also of a further benefaction, consisting of a clear yearly sum of one hundred pounds, which has been permanently secured to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice as an endowment for the same, out of the revenues of the rectory of Thornhill, in the county and diocese aforesaid, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said consolidated chapelry and benefice of Saint Luke, Middlestown, and to his successors, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one yearly sum or stipend of thirty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend of thirty-six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said consolidated chapelry and benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand and two hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Gosforth, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of forty pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Gosforth, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of forty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Stephen, Ayres Quay, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the fourteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint Stephen, Ayres Quay aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum : Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint Stephen, Ayres Quay.

(L.S.)

South Western (of London) District Post Office.
(Extension of and Acquisition of Site.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, on behalf of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, for an Act to empower the Postmaster-General to acquire and take by compulsory purchase or otherwise certain lands, houses, and buildings situate as to part thereof in the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, and as to other part thereof in the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, both in the county of Middlesex, that is to say:

The buildings now occupied as the London South Western District Post Office and Sorting Office, at Buckingham-gate and Stafford-place, in the parishes aforesaid, and the land on which such buildings stand, and also certain houses, being Nos. 55, 56, 57, 58, and 59, in Stafford-place, Buckingham-gate, and certain land, all in the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, which said houses and land abut on the north-west or west side thereof upon the said sorting office, east and south-east and north upon the roadway or footway of Stafford-place, Buckingham-gate, and south or south-west upon the house, No. 60, Stafford-place, and on land occupied therewith.

All which said buildings, houses, and land are described on the plans hereinafter mentioned. And the said Act will empower the Postmaster-General to pull down and remove the said buildings and houses, or some parts thereof, and to sell the materials thereof, and to appropriate the site as a post office, with sorting offices and other offices. And it is proposed by the said Act to empower the Postmaster-General to stop up, divert, alter, or remove, or appropriate temporarily or permanently, roads, ways, paths, streets, places, or passages by the side of or adjoining the premises so intended to be acquired as aforesaid, and any sewers or drains in or under the same, and also to throw land into or add to any such roads, ways, paths, streets, places, or passages as aforesaid.

And notice is further given, that the said Act will confer, alter, or vary other rights, powers, and privileges.

And that on or before the 29th day of November instant a plan and duplicate, describing the situation of the said buildings, land, houses, and hereditaments so proposed to be taken as aforesaid, and a book of reference to the plan, with a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, at his office, at the Sessions-house, at Clerkenwell, and that a copy of the said plan and book of reference and Gazette notice will also be deposited with the Clerk to the Westminster District Board of Works, at his office, in Great Smith-street, Westminster, and with the vestry clerk of the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, at his office, at the Board-room, Mount-street, Grosvenor-square, and that a copy of the said plan and book of reference and Gazette notice will also be deposited at the office of the Metropolitan Board of Works, in Spring-gardens, Westminster.

Wandsworth and Putney Gas.

(Further Capital; Purchase of Lands by Agreement for Extraordinary Purposes; Patent Rights; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Wandsworth and Putney Gas Light and Coke Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), for an Act for all or some of the following purposes; that is to say:—

1. To empower the Company to raise, for the purposes of the intended Act, and for the general purposes of their undertaking, additional capital, by shares or stock, or both, and by borrowing, and to attach to all or any of such shares or stock a preference or priority of dividend or interest, or any other advantage which the Bill may define or Parliament may prescribe, and to authorize the Company to create and issue debenture stock, and to authorize the Company to apply for all or any of the purposes of the Bill any funds and capital belonging to or authorized to be raised by them.

2. To consolidate all or any of the existing shares and stocks of the Company, and of the shares or stock to be created under the powers of the Bill, or to provide for such consolidation, and for regulating, defining, altering, and re-arranging the capital of the Company and the classes or denominations of shares into which such capital is now or may be divided, and to make or provide for making all such arrangements connected with or consequent on all or any of such objects or purposes as may be deemed needful and so far as may be necessary therefor respectively to vary the rights of the holders of shares or stock to be consolidated or otherwise dealt with under the Bill.

3. The Bill will or may authorize the Company to purchase or take on lease by agreement and held for the general purposes of their undertaking, other than the manufacture of gas, or the manufacture or conversion of residual products, lands, houses, and hereditaments, or easements, or rights in, over, through or under any lands and hereditaments, and to erect, fit up, maintain, and let thereon houses, cottages, and dwellings for the officers and servants employed by the Company, and to make and maintain roads, approaches, ways, works, and conveniences connected therewith.

4. To enable the Company from time to time to sell, exchange, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of any lands at any time acquired or held by them, which they may not for the time being require for the purposes of their undertaking.

5. To authorize the Company to acquire, hold, and use patent rights or licences and authorities under letters patent for or relative to the production, manufacture, utilization, supply, and distribution of gas and any other illuminating agent or heating or motive power, either in substitution for or as supplementary to or in aid of gas.

6. To vary and extinguish all existing rights or privileges which would interfere with any of the objects or purposes of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

7. To incorporate with and to extend to the purposes of the intended Act so far as the same are or may be made applicable, and except so far as the same may be varied thereby, all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, the Companies Clauses Act, 1869, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869, the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871, and to confer upon the Company all such other powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of their undertaking, and for carrying into effect the objects of the intended Act.

8. To alter, amend, enlarge, and, if need be, repeal and re-enact, with or without amendment or alteration, all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Wandsworth and Putney Gas Act, 1856," and "The Wandsworth and Putney Gas Act, 1866," and any other Act relating to the Company.

9. Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1879.

Meeting duly held at 10, Rumford-place, Liverpool aforesaid, on the 17th day of October, 1879, the following Extraordinary Resolutions were duly passed:—

1. "That it having been proved to the satisfaction of the Company that it cannot, by reason of its liabilities, continue its business, and that it is advisable to wind up the same, it is hereby determined that Stuart and Brother shall be wound up voluntarily, pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1862.

2. "That Mr. Edwin Guthrie, of No. 14, Marsden-street, Manchester, be, and he is hereby appointed the Liquidator thereof.

3. "That the said Edwin Guthrie shall receive out of the assets of the said Company the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, and such further sums as a majority of the shareholders, present at any meeting called for that purpose, shall from time to time determine upon for his own personal services as Liquidator, in addition to all sums expended by him for wages, travelling, hotel, and other expenses, and all legal costs, charges, and expenses incurred by him in the course of the liquidation of the affairs of the said Company as such Liquidator as aforesaid."

subsequent Special Meeting of the said Company, also duly convened and held at the same place, on the 13th day of October, 1879, the following Special Resolutions were duly confirmed:—

1. "That it has been proved to the satisfaction of this Meeting that the Company cannot, by reason of the smallness of its capital, carry on its business, and that it be advisable to wind up the same.

1. "That the Company be wound up voluntarily, and that the Directors be empowered to take the steps they consider advisable for such winding up."
