

18. The Superintendent, appointed by the Secretary of State, is empowered to enforce these Regulations, and is at all times to have access to the Magazines.

19. The Storekeeper or Assistant-Storekeepers are to report to the Inspecting Officer any deviation from these Rules and Regulations which may occur, as well as any other circumstances affecting the Security, especially as regards the due efficiency of the Mooring Chains and Tackle.

20. An Account of the Receipts and Issues is to be kept, either on board the Magazines, respectively by the Storekeepers or Assistant-Storekeepers, or at the Storekeeper's Office in Liverpool, in a Day Journal, which Journal is to be open to the inspection of the Superintendent at any time, and such Officer is empowered to make such Extracts as he may think proper.

Printed Copies of these Regulations are to be placed in such places in the Powder Vessels as the Superintendent may direct. These Printed Copies are to be renewed so often as it may be necessary to insure their being always perfectly legible, and such number of Copies are to be sent to the War Office from time to time, as may be required for posting in such places as the Secretary of State may think proper.

By Order of the Secretary of State for War,
RALPH THOMPSON.
