

Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parochial chapelry of Daresbury in the parish of Runcorn and in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester and out of the particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath also in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parochial chapelry of Daresbury in the parish of Runcorn aforesaid and of the said particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas by a certain deed of indenture bearing date on or about the fifth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856 or of some or one of them and being under the hand and seal of Sir Gilbert Greenall of Walton Hall in the said county of Chester, Baronet, a Member of the Commons House of Parliament and being also under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England (which deed is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said Gilbert Greenall did appoint grant and convey unto us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as and for an endowment for the said proposed district one perpetual clear yearly rent-charge of one hundred and fifty pounds sterling charged upon certain lands and hereditaments in the township of Higher Walton in the said parish of Runcorn.

“And whereas the said perpetual yearly rent-charge has been so appointed granted and conveyed as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Bishop of the said diocese of Chester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parochial chapelry of Daresbury in the parish of Runcorn aforesaid and of the said particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint John the Evangelist Walton.

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district of Saint John the Evangelist Walton and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be fully and freely exercised by the said Gilbert Greenall his heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint John the Evangelist Walton being:—

“All that portion of the parochial chapelry of Daresbury in the parish of Runcorn in the county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester which is bounded on the east partly by the district parish of Siretton and partly by the particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath both in the county and diocese aforesaid on the north-east by the last-named particular district or new parish on the north and on the north-west by the county of Lancaster or in other words by the River Mersey on the west by the new parish of Halton in the said county of Chester and in the diocese of Chester aforesaid and on the remaining sides that is to say on the south and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Halton from the parochial chapelry of Daresbury aforesaid at or near to the point where Lapwing-lane diverges from the said boundary in an easterly direction and extending thence first eastward and then southward to and along the middle of the said lane for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to its junction at Moore Turn Bridge over the Mersey and Irwell Canal with the road leading to Moore and extending thence that is from the said canal bridge south-
