

eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of fifty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby passing over the lines of London and North Western Railway and of the Birkenhead and Cheshire Junction Railway) to the point on the south-eastern side of the last-named line of railway where the said last-described-road joins the road leading from Moore to Higher Walton and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to its junction on the southern side of Porch House Farm-house with the road leading over Acton Grange Bridge on the Shropshire Union Canal to Holly Hedge Farm-house and continuing thence that is from the said Porch House Farm-house still south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of twenty-seven and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction on the southern side of Holly Hedge Farm-house aforesaid with the turnpike-road leading from Frodsham to Warrington and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said turnpike-road for a distance of one chain and twenty-five links or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading to Rowswood Farm-house and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of six chains or thereabouts to the boundary on the western side of the last-named farm-house which boundary divides the township of Acton Grange from the township of Walton Superior otherwise called or known as Higher Walton and extending thence southward along the said township boundary for a distance of forty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction in Row's Wood with the boundary dividing the last-named township from the township of Hatton and extending thence eastward along the last-mentioned township boundary for a distance of forty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary in the wood called or known as Bog Rough which boundary divides the said parochial chapelry of Daresbury from the district parish of Stretton aforesaid.

"And also all that contiguous portion of the particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath aforesaid which is bounded on the north-east on the north and on the north-west by the county of Lancaster aforesaid or in other words by the River Mersey aforesaid on the south-west on the south and on the south-east by the above-described portion of the said parochial chapelry of Daresbury and on the remaining side that is to say on the east by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the stream flowing from the reservoir called or known as the Warrington Reservoir past Walton Mill into the River Mersey where the boundary which divides the said parochial chapelry of Daresbury from the particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath aforesaid diverges from the said stream in a south-westerly direction such point being a little to the south-east of the bridge or culvert which carries the turnpike-road leading from Frodsham to Warrington as aforesaid over the same stream and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned boundary first north-westward and then northward along middle of the said stream for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts (thereby passing under the said turnpike-road and through the mill pond supplying Walton Mill aforesaid and following at the said mill the waste water branch of the same stream and crossing the Mersey and Irwell Canal aforesaid) to the junction of the same stream with the River Mersey aforesaid and continuing thence still northward and in a direct line to the county boundary in the middle of the said river which boundary divides the said county of Chester from the county of Lancaster aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the said parochial chapelry of Daresbury and of the said particular district or new parish of Saint Thomas Stockton Heath out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas one calendar month has expired since drafts of the said scheme were so transmitted as aforesaid and no objections have been made to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

LAMBORNE.—Forthwith wholly in Lamborne Church, in the county of Berks; and in the churchyard, except in graves, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins.

BEARSTEAD.—Forthwith in the old part of Bearstead Churchyard, in the county of Kent, except in existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately entombed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves to be used only for the burial of the widowers or widows of those already buried therein.

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT, CANTERBURY, KENT.—Forthwith wholly in the Church of Saint Gregory the Great, Canterbury, in the county of Kent; and in the churchyard, except in existing vaults and walled graves,