

Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of your Majesty chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Anthony situate in Globe-road in the parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney, and of the new parish of Saint Peter Stepney in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney and of the said new parish of Saint Peter Stepney should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Anthony situate in Globe-road as aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See both of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney and also of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter Stepney (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney and of the said new parish of Saint Peter Stepney which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Anthony situate in Globe-road as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anthony Stepney.’

“We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Anthony Stepney being:—

“All that portion of the parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls and which for ecclesiastical purposes is isolated and detached from the main body of the said parish all which portion of such parish is bounded on the south by the hereinafter described portion of the new parish of Saint Peter Stepney in the county and diocese aforesaid (or in other words by the line of the Great Eastern Railway) on the west by the new parish of Saint John Bethnal Green in the said county and diocese on the north partly by the last-named parish and partly by the new parish of Saint Simon Zelotes Bethnal Green in the county and diocese aforesaid and on the remaining side that is to say on the north-east by the last-named new parish.

“And also all that contiguous portion of the new parish of Saint Peter Stepney aforesaid which is bounded on the north by the hereinbefore described portion of the said parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney on the west and on the south-west by the new parish of Saint Bartholomew Bethnal Green in the county and diocese aforesaid, and on all other sides that is to say on the south and on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the last-named new parish from the new parish of Saint Peter Stepney aforesaid at the point where Cleveland-street is intersected by Devonshire-street and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of seven hundred yards or thereabouts to its junction with Carlton-road and with Morpeth-street and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named street to the point at or near to the bridge which carries the line of the Great Eastern Railway aforesaid over the said last-named street where the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Peter Stepney of the new parish of Saint Benet Stepney in the county and diocese aforesaid and of the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Saint Dunstan Stepney aforesaid all meet.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 15th day of December, 1879.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England,” it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in
