

consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and Wales, as lords or owners of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, have consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held in the month of July, in the village of Littlebourne, within the East Division of the Lathe of Saint Augustine, in the county of Kent, shall be abolished as from the date of this Order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 21st day of January, 1880.

Richard Assheton Cross.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

DANBURY FAIR.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices of the Peace for the county of Essex, acting for the Division of Chelmsford, in the said county, that a Fair has been annually held on the 29th day of May, in the village of Danbury, within the said division, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation, and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas, on such representation and consideration, it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 29th day of May, in the village of Danbury, within the Division of Chelmsford, in the county of Essex, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 21st day of January, 1880.

Richard Assheton Cross.

ORDER of the Local Government Board under the District Auditors Act, 1879: Assignment of Districts and Duties:—

Durham Audit District.

North and South Cowton United School District.

To James Radford, of No. 7, Collingwood-street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the county of Northumberland, Solicitor;—

To the School Board for the United School District of North and South Cowton;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 4 of "The District Auditors Act, 1879," it is enacted that the Local Government Board may from time to time assign to District Auditors their Duties, and the Districts in which such Auditors respectively are to act;

And whereas by an Order dated the 9th day of October, 1879, the Local Government Board certified the appointment of the said James Radford as a District Auditor, and ordered and prescribed that the District in which he should in future act as Auditor, and which was thereby assigned to him, should, until the said Board otherwise prescribed, comprise the area for the time being included in the several Unions named in the Schedule to that Order, and that such District should be termed "The Durham Audit District;"

And whereas it is prescribed by Article 2 of the said Order that it shall be the duty of the said District Auditor to audit the Accounts of the Guardians and the Overseers specified in Nos. (1) and (2) of that Article, as well as the Accounts of the other Authorities (and of their Officers) referred to in Nos. (3) and (4) in the following terms:—

"(3.) The several other Authorities for the time being whose Accounts are or may be by law subject to be audited by a District Auditor, and whose Districts or the areas of whose jurisdiction are for the time being wholly situated within the said Audit District."

"(4.) Such of the said other Authorities whose Accounts are or may be by law subject to be so audited, and whose Districts or the areas of whose jurisdiction are for the time being partly situated within the said Audit District, as We may by Order under Seal hereafter prescribe."

And whereas the School Board for the said United School District of North and South Cowton is an Authority whose Accounts are subject to be audited by a District Auditor, and such School District is partly situated within the said Audit District:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order and Prescribe that it shall be the duty of the said James Radford to audit the Accounts of the said School Board, and of their Officers, in conformity with the provisions contained in Article 3 of the above cited Order; and for the purpose of such Audit the District of the said School Board shall be deemed to be within the said Durham Audit District.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-sixth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

G. Sela'er-Booth,
President.

J. F. Rotton, Assistant Secretary.

ORDER of the Local Government Board under the District Auditors Act, 1879: Assignment of District and Duties:—

South Wales Audit District.

Cregina United School District.

To Edward Jones, of Velindre, in the county of Carmarthen, Gentleman;—

To the School Board for the Cregina United School District;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by Section 4 of "The District Auditors Act, 1879," it is enacted that the Local Government Board may from time to time assign to District Auditors their Duties, and the Districts in which such Auditors respectively are to act;

And whereas by an Order dated the 9th day of October, 1879, the Local Government Board certified the appointment of the said Edward Jones as a District Auditor, and ordered and prescribed that the District in which he should in future act as Auditor, and which was thereby
