

chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and sixty duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty chapter thirty-seven of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and four of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and sixty have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint Luke New Kentish Town out of the parish of Kentish Town and out of the parish of the Holy Trinity Haverstock Hill which said three parishes are all within the original limits of the parish of Saint Pancras in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

“Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Luke New Kentish Town of the said parish of Kentish Town and of the said parish of the Holy Trinity Haverstock Hill which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

“And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Saint Pancras have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts or of some of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the minister of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors a grant of two hundred pounds per annum and also so soon as a church shall have been erected within and for such district and shall have been approved by us and shall have been consecrated as the church of such district and such district shall have thereupon become a new parish within the meaning of the secondly herein mentioned Act to make and pay such further grant from the said fund as will suffice to raise the income of the incumbent of the said new parish to three hundred pounds per annum.

“And whereas such grants as aforesaid will be made by an instrument or instruments to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Luke New Kentish Town, of the said parish of Kentish Town, and of the said parish of the Holy Trinity Haverstock Hill which are mentioned and described in the schedule hereunder written and which are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named ‘The District of Saint Barnabas Kentish Town.’

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Saint Barnabas Kentish Town, being:—

“All those several contiguous portions of the parish of Saint Luke New Kentish Town, of the parish of Kentish Town and of the parish of the Holy Trinity Haverstock Hill, all within the original limits of the parish of Saint Pancras in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of the Holy Trinity Haverstock Hill from the parish of Saint Luke New Kentish Town aforesaid, at the point where Prince of Wales-road joins Kentish Town-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-four and a quarter chains or thereabouts (thereby following in one part the last-described boundary and in another part the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Luke New Kentish Town from the parish of Kentish Town aforesaid) to a point opposite to the Kentish Town Station on the line of the Midland Railway immediately over the middle of the main line of the said railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said main line of railway for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the point where it passes under the middle of the line of the Hampstead Junction Railway such point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kentish Town from the parish of Saint Martin Kentish Town within the original limits of the parish of Saint Pancras aforesaid and extending thence, that is from the last-described point, southward along the middle of the line of the said Hampstead Junction Railway for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts (thereby following in part the last-described boundary and in part the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Martin Kentish Town from the parish of the Holy Trinity Haverstock Hill aforesaid, and passing through the Kentish Town Station on the last-named line of railway to the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over Prince of Wales-road aforesaid and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the first-described point at the junction of the same road with Kentish Town-road aforesaid, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of the
