AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of February, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words following, that is to say;

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Sproughton situate in the county of Suffolk and in the diocese of Norwich between that benefice and the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or chapelry) of Playford situate in the said county of Suffolk and in the said diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas the Most Honourable Frederick William John Marquis of Bristol is absolutely seized of or otherwise well entitled to the patronage of the said benefice of Sproughton and also of the said benefice of Playford.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Sproughton is at present more that competently endowed and that the said benefice of Playford is at present insufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the said Frederick William John Marquis of Bristol has represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said chapelry of Playford by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Sproughton which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Sproughton is now full.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Lord Bishop of Norwich acting as Bishop of the diocese within which each of the said two benefices is situate, and with the consent of the said Frederick William John Marquis of Bristol as the patron of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Sproughton shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided, all the endowments whatsoever or wheresoever now belonging or which may hereafter belong to the said benefice of Sproughton shall be chargeable and for ever thereafter charged in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Playford with one clear annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds the same annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Playford and to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice of Playford or his representatives, and his successor in the same benefice, and to be receivable by each such incumbent by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and to be recoverable as against the person or persons who for the time being shall be beneficially entitled to the endowments of the said benefice of Sproughton by action of debt.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.
