

Privy Council Office, March 24, 1880.

THE following Statute, made on the 20th day of March, 1880, by the University of Oxford Commissioners, appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, concerning a Readership in Roman Law, founded and endowed by All Souls' College, every part whereof is to be deemed a Statute both of the University of Oxford and of All Souls' College, has been submitted for the approval Her Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the said Act.

A STATUTE made by the University of Oxford Commissioners for the University of Oxford, and also for the College of the Souls of All Faithful People Deceased of Oxford, commonly called All Souls' College, as to a Readership in Roman Law founded and endowed by All Souls' College.

WE, the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in this behalf enabling us contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument, in writing, under our seal, make the following Statute for the University of Oxford and for the College of the Souls of All Faithful People Deceased of Oxford, commonly called All Souls' College, every part whereof is to be deemed a Statute both of the University and of the College;—

Inasmuch as the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College have offered to pay annually the sum of four hundred pounds, so long as the Regius Professorship of Civil Law is held upon its present conditions, to be applied by the University to the endowment of a Readership in Roman Law, it is hereby provided that—

1. Until the Regius Professorship of Civil Law shall fall vacant, or until the existing Regius Professor shall, by his own consent, become subject to any Statutes for the future regulation of that Professorship and the duties of the Professor which may be made by the University of Oxford Commissioners, a Reader in Roman Law shall be appointed from time to time for successive periods of three years.

2. Any such Reader shall retain his office and be entitled to his stipend (unless he shall sooner resign the same) until the end of the period of three years for which he shall have been appointed, although in the meantime the Regius Professorship of Civil Law may have become vacant, or subject to any such Statutes to be hereafter made as aforesaid. And if any Statute shall be hereafter made by the University of Oxford Commissioners inconsistent with the continuance of such Readership no further appointment thereto shall be made after such Statute shall come into operation.

3. The Reader shall be elected by—

The Regius Professor of Civil Law;

The Chichele Professor of International Law and Diplomacy;

The Corpus Professor of Jurisprudence.

The Chairman for the time being of the Council of Legal Education appointed by the Inns of Court in London;

A person to be nominated by the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College, with a view to each election.

No election shall be invalidated on account of any of the Professorships, the holders of which are Electors to the Readership being vacant at the time of the election.

Those Professors shall be Electors, notwithstanding any change in their titles or duties to be hereafter made by Statute.

4. Subject to any general Statute to be hereafter made by or for the University as to the residence of University Readers, the Reader shall be required to reside within the precincts of the University for six months in each year, between the tenth day of October and the first day of July next following.

5. Subject to any such Statute as aforesaid, as to the Lectures to be given by University Readers, the Reader shall lecture during seven weeks of each term (Easter and Trinity Terms being counted as one), twice at least in each week, on separate days. He shall take as the subject of his Lectures Roman Law and the Sources and History thereof. He shall also, during the period in each term over which his Lectures shall extend, be ready to give private instruction to the students attending his Lectures.

6. If any general statute, applying to all Readers, shall be hereafter made by or for the University on the subjects provided for by the two last preceding clauses, or either of them, the Reader shall be subject thereto.

7. The Reader shall receive annually the sum of four hundred pounds, to be paid to him by the Warden and Fellows of All Souls' College.

8. In case of misconduct or neglect of duty on the part of the Reader, the Vice-Chancellor and the Delegates of Appeals in Congregation, or the majority of them, shall have power to admonish him, or, if need be, to remove him from his office.

Given under our Common Seal
this twentieth day of March,
in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty.
