to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Martin and the other of them to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Mary-le-Wigford respectively and each of the same annual sums or yearly charges to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice in favour of which the same is charged as aforesaid or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand, and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year and to be recoverable as against the person or persons who for the time being shall be beneficially entitled to the endowments of the said benefice of Great Ponton by action of debt.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.
