

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference,

"The District Chapelry of Saint Dunstan, East Acton, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Acton in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London, which is bounded on the north by the new parish of All Souls Harlesden in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the east partly by the district parish of Saint Stephen Hammersmith and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke Hammersmith both in the county and diocese aforesaid on the south partly by the said new parish of Saint Luke Hammersmith and partly by the new parish of All Saints South Acton sometime part of the said parish of Acton and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary dividing the said parish of Acton from the new parish of All Saints South Acton aforesaid at the point in the middle of the line of the North and South-Western Junction Railway where it crosses the Stamford Brook Sewer about ten chains to the south of the bridge which carries such line of railway over the high road from Shepherd's Bush to Acton and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of thirty-three chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Shakespeare-road and extending thence westward for a distance of eleven chains and fifteen links or thereabouts to and along the middle of the said road to its junction with Myrtle-road and extending thence northward along the middle of last-named road for a distance of twelve chains and eighty links or thereabouts to its junction with Acacia-road and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eighteen chains and thirty links or thereabouts to its junction with Horn-lane, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the same lane for a distance of twenty-five chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge at the eastern end of the Acton Station on the line of the Great Western Railway where the said Horn-lane joins Willesden-lane and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of seventy-eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Acton from the new parish of All Souls Harlesden aforesaid at or near to the point where the said Willesden-lane is joined by Norwood-lane."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbent and vestry clerk of the parish of Chelsea ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the undermentioned burial-ground:

CHELSEA.—Forthwith wholly in the old burial-ground King's-road, Chelsea.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the seventh day of May next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said seventh day of May.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:—

FOREST HILL.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Forest Hill, in the county of Oxford; and in the churchyard after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, except in existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

FARNCOMBE.—Forthwith in the parish church and churchyard of Farncombe, in the county of Surrey, except for the burial of the Reverend C. R. Dallas, Rector of Farncombe, on his decease, and except for the burial of the widow of the late Colonel Fairtlough, on her decease, in their respective vaults.

SOULDERN.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Souldern, in the county of Oxford; and in the old part of the churchyard, except in existing vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.