

The London Gazette.

Number 2453

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 26. to Thursday August 29. 1689

Whitehall, August 20.

This day the following Address was presented to His Majesty by Philip Buckerlaff Esq; and several other Gentlemen of Northumberland, being introduced by the Right Honorable the Lord Viscount Lumley, Lord-Lieutenant of that County; which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King and Queen's most Excellent Majesties.

The humble Representation of Your Majesties Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, of the County of Northumberland, at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Hexham for the said County, this 17th day of July, in the First Year of Your Majesties Reign.

May it please Your Sacred Majesties,

WE Your Majesties Dutiful and Faithful Subjects are deeply sensible, that we might have suffered all the Miseries and Calamities, which the Two Twins of Popery and Arbitrary Power could have inflicted upon us, if Almighty GOD (when we were upon the very brink of utter Ruin and Destruction,) had not raised up Your Majesty to be the great and Glorious Instrument for our Relief, and of which no Age will ever be silent. We do in all Humility humbly crave leave to acknowledge and manifest the great Joy and Comfort we have in living under the Protection of Your Majesties gentle and benign Government; and also to express our Loyal Gratitude for Your Majesties great Clemency and unexampled Favour in freeing and easing Your Subjects from the Burthen of Chimney-money, by which Your Majesties have declared to the World, That you esteem the Ease and Satisfaction of Your People as Your greatest Glory, and their Affections Your greatest Strength. We humbly beseech Your Majesties to be assured, that none of Your Majesties Subjects shall ever outstrip us in our Zeal for Your Majesties Government, and for the Defence of the ancient Laws of the Land, and the Protestant Reformed Religion established by Law, which hath, and only can make Your Majesties and Your Kingdoms happy. And we shall ever pray for Your Majesties long, Peaceable, and prosperous Reign over us; and at all times, and upon all occasions, found to be Your Majesties most Loyal, Faithful, and Obedient Subjects, Barcelona, July 23. This day arrived here 18 Gallies from Italy, with 2500 Soldiers, who are to serve in this Country: And now 'tis the general discourse here, that the Spanish Army will soon enter into France.

Rome, Aug. 12. The Pope died between 4 and 5 a Clock this Afternoon, having been taken Speechless about 9 in the morning: He has left many Places vacant in the College of Cardinals. The Cardinal d'Altriery, as Chamberlain of the Church, has caused publick Notice to be given of his Death; And dispatch'd Couriers to divers Courts.

Genova, August 7. The Gallies of Naples and Sicily, and those commanded by the Duke of Turbis, which parted from hence on the 18th of the last month, with 2500 Foot, drawn out of the Forces in Milan, arrived at Barcelona on the 25th, as we are informed by a Felucca come from thence in five days; which brings likewise Advice, That the Spanish Troops on that side had defeated several of the Enemies Partics; And that the Duke de Villa Hermosa, Viceroy of that Kingdom, intended, so soon as he had formed his Army, to march into Roussillon. The 4th instant a Vessel arrived here in 20 days from Tripoli; the Master whereof tells us, that the new Dey and the Soldiers had cut off the Heads of their late Admiral, and two other Commanders of their Ships, at their return home from the Levant, as being of the Faction of the former Dey, whom they had strangled before. That Government was resolved to maintain the Peace with the English; but was very much inclined to break with France; which they had given several Marks of by their ill Treatment of the French Consul. Those Corsairs, when this Vessel came away, had five Ships ready to go to Sea.

Venice, August 12. A Vessel come from the Morea confirms the former Account we had of the Doge's being gone with the whole Fleet from Napoli di Romania; but as yet we have no certain Advice of his being landed on the Island of Negrepont. Whither, as we hear, the Turks have sent very considerable Succors.

Warsaw, July 29. The King of Poland is now at Sierozm, where a Council of War will be held, to take a final Resolution about the marching of the Army. We have had very different Reports concerning the Success of the late Fight between the Moscovites and Tartars, each side pretending to the Victory, and giving our ample Accounts of their Enemies Losses, but none of them can be relied upon; All we hear with any certainty is, That the Moscovites are retired towards the Nieper, and that there have passed some Overtures between them and the Tartars about making a Peace.

Frankfort, Aug. 24. The last Letters from the Camp before Mentz say, That the Besiegers were advanced to the Glacis of the Counter-carp; that they had discovered several of the Enemies Mines, and that they were making Preparations, in order to lodge themselves on the Counter-carp. The Electors Dowager of Brandenburg dyed the 16th instant at Carlsbaden.

Trier, August 19. The Marquis de Boufflers is encamped with the Troops under his command at Monzenfeld; whither 1300 Horse and Dragoons are on their march from Luxemburg to joyn him: He pretends to lay a Bridge over the Moselle; and in the meantime destroys all the Country round.

Paris, Sept. 3. This Court is much concerned at the ill Success of the late Action at Walcourt, which has cost us a great number of Men, and many brave Officers: There is a Lift in Town of the later, as follows.

Monsieur de St. Gelais, Marechal de Camp, killed with a Cannon Shot near the Marechal d'Humieres.
Monsieur de Metz Tiercelin, Commissary of the Artillery, likewise killed with a Cannon Shot.
The Chevalier de Colbert, Brigadier and Colonel of the Regiment of Champagne, mortally wounded.
Monsieur de Tibergeau, Lieutenant of the Artillery, wounded.

Of the Guards.

The Count d'Artagnan, killed.	14 Lieutenants wounded.
4 Captains killed,	The Aid Major wounded.
3 Captains wounded.	A Gentleman Volontier killed, and 2 wounded.
5 Lieutenants killed.

Of the Regiment of Champagne.

The Lieutenant Colonel wounded.	2 Captains killed.
The Major mortally wounded.	5 Captains wounded.
	2 Lieutenants killed.
	7 Lieutenants wounded.

Of the Gendarmes

An Exempt of the Guards wounded.

Of Vilpion's Regiment of Horse.

1 Captain killed.	An Aid-Major wounded.
1 Corner wounded.

Of Greder's Regiment of Foot

1 Captain killed.	Another Aid-Major wounded.
2 Captains wounded.	cd.
An Aid-Major killed.	1 Lieutenant wounded.

Several of those wounded are since dead.

The Letters from Wanders of the 30th past say, That Prince Waldeck removed his Camp the day before to Ger-piñes; and that the Mareschal d'Humieres was going to Encamp at Florennes. We are told from Mont Royal, that the Marquis de Boufflers, who had with him 3500 Foot, and 40 Squadrons of Horse and 4 Pieces of Cannon, had on the 26th of the last Month taken by Assault the little Town of Kächem on the Moselle, which was defended by 5 or 600 Men, the greatest part whereof were put to the Sword. They write from Brest, that the French Fleet, which has ever since their going out, kept that Coast, was on the 25th past obliged by a fresh Gale at W. and W. S. W. to take their Course towards Bell Isle, for fear of being separated. The Duke de Chaulnes, with the French Cardinals, are now on their Journey to Rome; The King gives to each 18000 Livres, except the Cardinal of Bouillon, who goes on his own Expence. The Cardinal of Cambray, Bishop of Greenoble, stays behind, by Order from Court. We have Advice, that the French Fleet is at Bell Isle, and that Monfieur de Saingney has left it, and is on his return hither.

Edinburgh, Aug. 22. We have an account by Letters from Sir John Lanier, written the 20th instant at Farfur, in Angus, that having sent out Lieutenant-Colonel Lumley with a Party of a hundred Horse and Dragoons, to bring him News of the Rebels, he met with some of their advanced Men, whom he charged and beat back, killing and taking many of them; upon Notice whereof Sir John Lanier marched immediately with his Regiment, and Colonel Berkley's Dragoons, and overtook the main Body of the Rebels, at the Entrance into the High-lands, about 8 miles from Farfur, and encamped all night in sight of them, and at break of day drew as near as that Rocky Ground would allow Horse to do, whereupon the Rebels retired in great haste back into the Hills towards Aibol. The Prisoners said, That the Rebels whole Force consists but of 2500 Foot, and 80 Horse; that many want Arms, and that they had no manner of Discipline amongst them.

Chester, Aug. 24. Yesterday marched from hence the Lord Delamer's Regiment of Horse, and Sir Thomas Gore's Regiment of Foot, towards Higblake, in order to Embark there. Some persons, who came from Dublin on Monday last, say, The News of the Duke of Schomberg's Landing, which followed that of the Defeat of Lieutenant General Macarty by the Iniskilling Men, had put a great Consternation among the Irish: And that the late King had published a Proclamation, requiring all from 16 to 60 to repair to his Standard.

Chester, Aug. 26. The Master of a Vessel that arrived yesterday at Nelson gives an account, That he came the 14th instant from Derry, and the 20th from the Lough of Carrickfergus, where he touched in his way. That before his Departure from Derry they had received advice from Colonel Walsely, who commands the Iniskilling Forces, That having marched to Siege with two Troops of Horse and 150 Foot, the Irish Troops that were posted there fled upon his Approach, leaving behind them 14 Pieces of Cannon and a Mortar Piece. That the Enemy had likewise abandoned Colerain, upon the News of Major General Kirk's being on his March thither, who found there great Store of Arms, Ammunition, and Provisions. That on the 17th Major General Kirk continued his March from Colerain, with 2 Regiments of Horse and 3 of Foot, to join the Duke of Schomberg; which some of his Horse did on the 19th; and that the same day the English laid Siege to Carrickfergus, which was likewise battered by 8 of our Men of War. That all sorts of Provisions were very plentiful in the English Camp. And that on the 21st he met off of the Isle of Man above 60 Sail of Ships bound from Higblake to the Lough of Carrickfergus: And others on the 24th likewise going thither from Higblake. On Saturday last came in here a Regiment of Horse, which marched again yesterday towards Higblake, whither the Earl of Devonshire's Regiment of Horse, which came hither this day, is now likewise on its March.

Liverpool, Aug. 23. On Wednesday last arrived here 7 Ships from Derry: They brought an account, that Major-General Kirk was marched into Colerain, which the Irish, upon his approach, abandoned in great Confusion: They had Tan'd the Bridge, and laid combustible stuff in order to burn it, but their fear was such, that none of them would fly to set fire to it. The Irish had likewise abandoned Siege, upon Advice, that Major Teffany was marching thither with 200 Men from Iniskilling, leaving in the place 14 great Guns, and a Mortar-piece. Several Regiments of Horse are on their march towards Higblake. My Lord Delamer's Regiment was shipp'd and sail'd this day. Since Sunday last 180 Ships have sail'd from Higblake, with Horse, Foot, and Dragoons, for Ireland.

Falmonth, Aug. 22. Yesterday came in here a Dutch Privateer belonging to Middleburg, with a French Prize call'd the Duke Charles of St. Mado, of 16 Guns, laden with Hides, Tobacco, and several Chests of Plate, from St. Domingo. This Capter saw the French Fleet, on the 12th instant, about seven Leagues S. W. from Ushant: And 3 days after met the English and Dutch Fleet, under the Command of the Earl of Torrington, off of Kingsale.

Penbrooke, Aug. 21. Their Majesties Ships the St. Albans and the Centurion came yesterday into this Harbour with a Danish Ship laden with French Commodities, and sail'd again this Morning to rejoin the Fleet, which they left on Saturday last off of the Highlands of Dungarvan.

Plimouth, Aug. 23. Several Ships are come into this Port, being bound for N. w. found-land under the Convoy of 4 Men of War. This day a Vessel came in here from the Westward, the Master says, they had heard great shooting off of Scilly.

Plimouth, Aug. 25. This day came in here Their Majesties Ship the Berkley Castle from Higblake being bound to Spithead. The Samuel and Mary, and the Prudent Mary, are arrived in this Port from New England.

Portsmouth, Aug. 25. This morning passed by Spithead two Dutch Men of War, of 50 Guns each, with 8 other Ships, laden with Provisions; going to the Fleet. Their Majesties Ship the Fore-gbr weigh'd just now, and is gone after them, being likewise bound to the Fleet, with the Quaker Ketch: And the Hannich is preparing to follow.

Dea's, Aug. 25. There are now in the Downs the Exeter, Dunkirk, Bristol, and the Mary a hired Ship, with the Dragon Sloop, and Mary Yacht.

Hampton-Court, Aug. 27. This day His Majesty was pleas'd, in his Bed-Chamber, to confer the Honour of Knighthood upon Francis Blake of Ford Cattle in the County of Northernham Esq; Advertisements.

* Hibernia Anglicana, or the History of Ireland, from the Conquest thereof by the English to this present time; with an Introductory Discourse touching the ancient State of that Kingdom, and a new and exact Map of the same. By Richard Cox Esq; Recorder of Kingfish. Printed for Joseph Wats, at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-yard.

WHERAS the Habitations of many of the Creditors of Sir Robert Vyner are unknown to his Executor, I these are to give Notice to all his Creditors, and others concerned for them, That some Persons will attend on the behalf of the said Executor, on Tuckdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, from twelve of the Clock till two in the Afternoon, at Cole's Coffee-house in Burchin-lane, near the Royal Exchange, London, to advise with them of a Method for Satisfying the Debts of the said Sir Robert Vyner.

THERE is a Place to be Run for on Basingstoke Downs near Basingstoke, the first Tuckday in October; All Gentlemen Contributors are desired to enter their Horses, with Mr. William Colman Mayor of Basingstoke, or Mr. John Ansell at the Cross Keys Tavern in Covent-Garden, a Month before the Place is Run for.

ONE John Allen, a Servant, low of Stature, and slender, long lean Fingers, little hands, oval visaged, thick Lips, in a brown Cloth Suit, run away from his Master from Tunbridge Wells, on Friday the 23d instant, with Money which he was trusted to pay. He likewise Shaves and makes Periwigs. Whoever cures him, and gives notice to the Porter of the Exchequer, shall have a Guinea reward.

A Tall fresh coloured Fellow, with lankish white Hair, an old Fustian Frock, with a black Hat, went away from his Master William Shephard at the Swan in Stratford in Essex, on the 25th instant, with a black Cart Gelding near 15 hands, Trots all, having 3 white Feet, with a whisk Tail, and his Hair cut a little for the Collar. Whoever gives Notice of him to Nicholas Gilbert at the Black Horse Stables in Lincoln-Inn-Fields, shall have a Guinea, and reasonable Charges.

STRAYED or Stolen the 20th instant from Mr. Thomson's Grounds at the White Hart at the Horse-Ferry, Westm. a frate bright bay Gelding with a little Star and Ship, and several Saddle-spots, about 15 hands, comes 7, and all his pieces. Whoever gives Notice of him at the White Hart aforesaid, or to Mr. Robert Scott at the Right Honourable the Lord Lumley's in St. James's Square, shall have a Guinea, and reasonable Charges.

STOLN or strayed the 17th or 18th instant from Robert Burdett Esq; of Bramcoot near Polsforth in Warwickshire, a dark brown Mare with a bald Face, and a piece cut out of her Ear, above 14 hands, carries her Nose bowing out when going. Tries all, and draws well, about 6 or 7 years old. Whoever gives Notice of her to the abovesaid Robert Burdett Esq; or to Thomas Horne Bookbinder at the South entrance of the Royal Exchange, whether she may be had again, shall have 20s.