

The Southwold Railway Company.
Certificate of the Board of Trade for the Increase of the Capital of the Southwold Railway Company.

WHEREAS the Southwold Railway Company have complied with the requirements of the Railway Companies Powers Act, 1861:

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade do, by this their Certificate, in pursuance of the said Act, and by virtue and in exercise of the powers thereby in them vested, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, certify as follows:—

1. The Southwold Railway Company (hereinafter called the said Company), may, for the purpose of their undertaking, and in addition to the capital already authorized to be raised by them, raise any further sum or sums not exceeding in the whole £9,000, by creation of new shares, either wholly ordinary or wholly preferential, or partly ordinary and partly preferential; and the shares so created shall form part of the capital of the said Company.

2. The rate of interest to be paid on any preferential shares which may be issued under this Certificate shall not exceed £6 per cent. per annum.

3. In respect of any new shares issued under this Certificate, section 21 of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, shall be read and construed as provided for by the Special Act of Parliament, and by section 27 of the Railway Companies Act, 1867.

4. The preferential dividend or interest on any new shares or stock in the additional capital to be raised under this Certificate shall be paid in priority over the ordinary shares of the original capital of the said Company.

5. The holders of all shares issued under this Certificate shall have and may exercise the same power of voting at any meeting of the said Company as the holders of shares that have been already issued by the said Company, and the holders of all shares issued under this Certificate shall hold them subject to the same and the like liabilities as holders of shares already issued by the said Company now hold them.

6. The said Company may raise by borrowing on mortgage, in addition to the borrowing powers already conferred by the Company's special Act, a sum not exceeding in the whole £3,000.

7. All mortgages already issued by the said Company, and in force at the commencement of the operation of this Certificate, shall have priority over all mortgages which may be issued under this Certificate.

8. The said Company may create and issue debentures or debenture stock to the same amount and in lieu of the £3,000 so authorized to be borrowed by this Certificate, subject to the provisions of Part III of the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, but notwithstanding anything therein contained the interest of all debenture stock issued by the Company under this Certificate shall rank pari passu with the interest of all mortgages granted by the Company either originally or under this Certificate, and shall have priority over all principal moneys secured by such mortgages.

9. Sections 23 to 26, both inclusive, of the Railway Companies Act, 1867, with reference to loan capital, shall be incorporated with this Certificate, and shall apply to loan capital raised under this Certificate in like manner as if this Certificate were a special Act.

10. All money raised under this Certificate shall be applied in the way and for the objects authorized by the Southwold Railway Act, 1876, or by this Certificate.

11. All costs and expenses of and incidental to obtaining this Certificate shall be paid by the said Company.

12. This Certificate may be cited for all purposes as The "Southwold Railway (Additional Capital) Certificate, 1880."
