FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1880.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, June 7, 1880.

OTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Wednesday, the 30th instant, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command, The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness. The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-KENMARE, past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain.

T the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of June, 1880.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order, bearing date the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, defining a part of the Port of Bristol, in the county of Gloucester, as a foreign animals wharf: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order. C. L. Peel.

(Port of Bristol (Avonmouth).

T the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of June, 1880.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the following part of the Port of Bristol, in the county of Gloucester, as a foreign animals wharf:

All that space at the Dock and premises called or known as the Avonmouth Dock, belonging to the Bristol Port and Channel Dock Company, situate at or near the confluence of the Rivers Avon and Severn, in the county of Gloucester, commencing at a point at the water edge of the southwest side of the Lock of the said Dock sixty feet or thereabouts from the corner of the said Dock, thence running in a south-westerly direction at a right angle to the quay side for a distance of two hundred and eighty-five feet or thereabouts, and bounded by a temporary wooden fence, a wooden fence, the south-east walls of a building called the New Lairs, and a further wooden fence, thence at a right angle in a north-westerly direction for a distance of three hundred and eight feet or thereabouts, and bounded by a wooden fence, the south-west wall of a building called the Slaughter House, and a further
