

doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of Tobago without modification or alteration, as if it were part of "The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of June, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, 1875, it is amongst other things, enacted that Her Majesty may, with the advice of Her Privy Council, order the calling out of all or any part of the Militia to be dispensed with:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to dispense with the calling out of the Kings County Regiment of Militia, and to direct that there shall be no training and exercising thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby dispense with the calling out of the Kings County Regiment of Militia, and doth order and direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty: and this Order be published in the London Gazette.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of June, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council on the 10th day of December, 1875, Her Majesty did, by and with the advice of the said Council, order that the Right Honourable John Somerset, Baron Hampton, Grand Cross of the Bath, Sir George Webbe Dasent, Knight, Doctor of Civil Law, and Theodore Walrond, Esquire, Companion of the Bath, or such other persons as Her Majesty might from time to time approve in the stead of them or any of them should be Her Majesty's Commissioners for testing, in conformity with Her Majesty's Order in Council dated the 4th of June, 1870, or such further Order or Orders as Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council had issued, or might issue in that behalf, the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and also for testing in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, the literary qualifications of candidates for first Commissions in the Army, and for admission to the Royal Military College at Woolwich, and should hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty; the said Right Honourable John Somerset, Baron Hampton, being the First Commissioner; and should have power, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as might be required to assist them in the duties thereinafter assigned to them:

And whereas since the date of the Order first above mentioned, the said Right Honourable John

Somerset, Baron Hampton, hath departed this life, and whereas it is deemed expedient that George Henry Charles, Baron Strafford (commonly called Viscount Enfield) should be appointed First Commissioner in the place and stead of the said Right Honourable John Somerset, Baron Hampton, but without salary:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said George Henry Charles, Baron Strafford (commonly called Viscount Enfield), the said Sir George Webbe Dasent, Knight, and the said Theodore Walrond, Esquire, or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them, or any of them, shall be Her Majesty's Commissioners for testing, in conformity with the said Order in Council dated the 4th of June, 1870, or such further Order or Orders as Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, has issued, or may issue in that behalf, the qualifications of persons proposed to be appointed to situations or employments in Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and also for testing in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for War, the literary qualifications of candidates for first Commissions in the Army, and for admission to the Royal Military College at Woolwich; and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty: the said George Henry Charles, Baron Strafford (commonly called Viscount Enfield) being the First Commissioner; and shall have power subject to the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to appoint from time to time such Assistant Examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of their duties.

And it is further ordered that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall not prepare or submit to Parliament any estimate for the remuneration of the said First Commissioner.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 28th day of June, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "That when, with respect to his own diocese, it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining
