

by us to the said Archbishop in the manner and subject to the provisions expressed in the said Order and the said library has accordingly since the same date been made accessible to the public in the manner set forth in the said Order.

"And whereas it has been represented to us by the present Archbishop of Canterbury and we are of opinion that it is desirable to provide increased facilities for the use by the public of the said library and with that view to make arrangements for the said library being open to readers during a greater number of hours in the day than heretofore and also for its being opened more frequently than heretofore in order that books may be conveniently borrowed therefrom under such regulations and restrictions as may seem to be necessary.

"And whereas in order to secure the provision of such increased facilities as aforesaid it appears to us to be reasonable and proper to increase the amount now annually paid by us to the said Archbishop as aforesaid and that such annual payment should be accordingly increased from one hundred and fifty pounds to two hundred and fifty pounds.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us to the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year the annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds and that the first of such half-yearly payments or a proportionate part thereof calculated from the day on which the intended new regulations shall have come into operation shall be made on the first day of July next Provided always that no payment to be made by us for or in respect of any one half-year as aforesaid shall exceed in amount the sum which shall have been proved by certificate from the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being or otherwise to our satisfaction to have been actually expended by the said Archbishop for the time being in respect of the same half-year in providing for the custody of the books and manuscripts contained in such library, in maintaining the same in a fitting condition and in rendering the same accessible to the public at such times and subject to such restrictions as we shall have previously approved Provided also that subject to such restrictions, access to the said library shall be secured to the public during a period of nine months in every year on four days (at the least) in every week for not less than six hours on each such day and that the payments aforesaid be made out of the rents and profits of the estates belonging to the See of Canterbury which have been transferred to us.

"And we further recommend and propose that the provisions contained in the hereinbefore mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council relative to the repair of the fabric of the said library and to the repair of the books and manuscripts therein shall continue in force as heretofore.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid in conformity with the said hereinbefore recited Act or any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Ma-

esty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.
