Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1880.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1880.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.
Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Lord Chamberlain.

WHEREAS by section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, that if by any Law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer ;

Or direct that such Law or Ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act :

And whereas by a Law enacted by the Legislature of the Transvaal Province, the short title of which is "The Extradition Law, Transvaal, 1880," it is provided that "all powers vested in " and acts authorized or required to be done by a " Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace " in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals " in the United Kingdom under ' The Extradition " ' Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in " and may in the Province be exercised and done " by any Landdrost in relation to the surrender " of fugitive criminals under the said Acts " :

And whereas it is further provided by the said Law that the said Law shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall, by Order in Council, direct that the said Law shall have effect within the Province as if it were part of the " Extradition Act, 1870, but that the said Law shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Province.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of " The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Law shall have effect in the Transvaal Province without modification or alteration, as if it were part of " The Extradition Act, 1870."

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Kimberley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1880.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, 1875, it is amongst other things enacted that Her Majesty may, with the advice of Her Privy Council order the calling out of all or any part of the Militia to be dispensed with :

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to dispense with the calling out of the Fermanagh Regiment of Militia, and to direct that there shall be no training and exercising thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby dispense with the calling out of the Fermanagh Regiment of Militia, and doth order and direct that there shall be no training and exercise thereof in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty ; and that this Order be published in the London Gazette. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1880.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-two duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

" We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in
