

parish of Burneston in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist situate in the ancient chapelry of Leeming as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Burneston which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Baptist situate in the ancient chapelry of Leeming as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist Leeming.

"And with the like consent of the said Robert Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John the Baptist situate in the ancient chapelry of Leeming as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist Leeming being:—

"All that part of the parish of Burneston in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the ancient chapelry of Leeming or in other words of that portion of the township of Exelby Leeming and Newton which is bounded on the south-east partly by the township of Theakston and partly by the township of Gatenby both in the parish of Burneston aforesaid, on the east for the most part by the River Swale or in other words by the parish of Ainderby Steeple in the county and diocese aforesaid on the north for the most part by the stream called or known as Bedale Beck or in other words by the parish of Scruton in the said county and diocese on the west partly by the said Bedale Beck and partly by the stream called or known as the Main Stell or in other words by the parish of Bedale in the same county and diocese and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the south and on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Bedale from the parish of Burneston aforesaid at the centre of Flood Bridge which carries the road leading from Bedale to Burneston over the stream called or known as the Main Stell aforesaid and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of twelve and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Westfield-lane and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-six chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading from Leeming to Exelby and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of thirteen and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road called or known as Green Gate and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of eighteen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge or culvert which carries the same road over the stream called or known as Burtree Dike and extending thence generally south-eastward along the middle of the last-named stream for a distance of fifty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby passing under Toft's-lane) to the boundary at or near to the north-eastern end of the occupation-road which leads in a south-westerly direction to the house called or known as Exelby Grange which boundary divides the said ancient chapelry of Leeming and township of Exelby Leeming and Newton from the township of Theakston aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always,
