FRIDAY, AUGUST 6, 1880.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 31st day of July, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas, in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such archbishop, or the diocese of such bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said archbishop or bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such bishop to be transmitted to the said archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said archbishop may

"approve, and the said archbishop shall, on full consideration and inquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Lord Bishop of Peterborough hath made a representation in writing to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell
Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury.

"I the Right Reverend William Connor Lord Bishop of Peterborough do hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the town and county of Leicester and my diocese of Peterborough the vicarage of Saint Nicholas Leicester.

"That adjoining to the parish of Saint Nicholas Leicester aforesaid is an extra-parochial place known by the name of Blackfriars.

"That the inhabitants of the said extra-parochial place resort to the parish church of Saint Nicholas Leicester to which it is contiguous,

"That the population of the said parish of Saint Nicholas Leicester is one thousand six hundred.

"That the population of the said extra-parochial place is two thousand.

"That the net annual value of the vicarage of Saint Nicholas Leicester aforesaid is £233 11s. 0d.

"That the church of Saint Nicholas Leicester aforesaid affords accommodation for 440 persons.

"That it appears to me that the said extra-parochial place known as 'Blackfriars' may under the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the 1st and 2nd years of Her present Majesty cap. 106 and the 2nd and 3rd years of Her said Majesty cap. 49 with advantage be permanently annexed to the said vicarage and parish of Saint Nicholas Leicester for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the 26th section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration may be best effected and I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consent of the patron to the intent that your
