

opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

BRYNMAWR.—Forthwith wholly in the chapels and chapelyards of Libanus (Worcester-street), the Primitive Methodists' (Orchard-street), Tabor (Davies-street), and Bethesda (Alma-street); forthwith in the chapel and chapel-yard of Rehoboth (King-street), except in a walled grave in the chapelyard for the interment of Mr. Thomas Owen, the coffin when buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; forthwith wholly in the Chapels of Calvary (King-street), and Zion (Clarence-street); and in the chapelyards, except for the interment of the widowers, widows, parents, and unmarried children of those already buried therein.

OWSTON.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Owston, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, existing on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and none but the members of the families of those already buried to be interred therein.

WELWYN.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Welwyn, in the county of Hertford; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves existing on the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or the disturbance of human remains, to be used only for the burial of the widows, widowers, brothers, and sisters, parents, and children of those already buried therein.

WOODSTONE.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Woodstone, in the county of Huntingdon; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented, and none but the relations of those already buried to be interred.

EPWORTH.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Epworth, in the county of Lincoln; and in the churchyard, except in vaults and walled graves, every coffin buried in which shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the thirteenth day of September next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said thirteenth day of September.

Downing Street, August 6, 1880.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission, under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, to the effect following :—

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith: To Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin Robert Adam Philips Haldane, Earl of Camperdown, and Our Trusty and Well-beloved Samuel Whitbread, Esquire.

Whereas We did, by Commission under Our Sign Manual and Signet, bearing date the eighth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, authorise and appoint Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Henry Howard Molyneux Earl of Carnarvon, Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Hugh Culling Eardley Childers, Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Brassey, Esquire, together with the other gentlemen therein named, or any three or more of them, to be Our Commissioners to inquire into the State of the Defences of the more important Colonial Ports and Coaling Stations, and to consider the apportionment of the Cost of such Defences.

And whereas We have seen fit to discharge the said Hugh Culling Eardley Childers and Thomas Brassey from further service as such Commissioners.

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, discretion, and ability, do by these presents authorize and appoint you the said Robert Adam Philips Haldane, Earl of Camperdown, and you the said Samuel Whitbread, in the place of the said Hugh Culling Eardley Childers and the said Thomas Brassey, to be Commissioners for the purposes aforesaid, in addition to and together with the continuing Commissioners appointed by Our above-mentioned Commission.

Given at Our Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, this second day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the forty-fourth year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
Kimberley.
