AT the Court at Balmoral, the 6th day of September, 1880.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, That if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act :

And whereas by an Ordinance enacted by the Legislature of St. Vincent the short title of which is, "The Extradition Ordinance (St. Vincent) 1880," it is provided that "all powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals in the United Kingdom under 'The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873,' are thereby vested in and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Police Magistrate in relation to the Surrender of Fugitive Criminals under the said Acts."

And whereas it is further provided by the said Ordinance that the said Ordinance shall not come into operation until Her Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of the "Extradition Act, 1870," but that the said Ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Colony.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of St. Vincent without modification or

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Nottingham shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where but for the said Winter Assizes Acts such prisoner would have been tried.

The provision of Section three of the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of the County for which such Assizes were held" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorise the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Nottingham, or to levy outside the said County fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for any county comprised in the said Winter Assize County; or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. 11. Any person who after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Nottingham, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Nottingham, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Nottingham.

If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

17. Where the Court at the Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Nothing in this Order shall authorise the trial or require the attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County of any person who shall have been admitted to bail, and shall not at the time of the holding of such Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County be in custody, unless such person is jointly charged with another person in actual custody.

And whereas it appears to the Trinity House expedient to relax the provisions of the said section in respect of Pilotage Services between the Nore and Rochester (being a District of the Trinity House) to the extent hereinafter appearing :

And whereas the Trinity House hath submitted for the sanction of Her Majesty in Council the following Byelaw (that is to say) :

From and after the publication in the London Gazette of the Order signifying the consent of Her Majesty in Council to this Byelaw, no Pilot licensed by the Trinity House for the Navigation between the Nore and Rochester shall incur any Penalty for demanding or receiving in respect of the Pilotage within the limits aforesaid of any Ship exempted from compulsory Pilotage any rate less than the rate for the time being demandable by law in respect of such Ship, and no Master of any such Ship shall incur any Penalty for offering or paying in respect of the Pilotage of any such Ship within the limits aforesaid any rate less than the rate for the time being demandable by law in respect of such Ship, anything contained in the 358th section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," to the contrary notwithstanding.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Byelaw into consideration, and deeming the same to be reasonable and proper, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, to declare Her consent to the same, and the said Byelaw is hereby approved accordingly.

And whereas the Tyne Pilotage Commissioners, being the Pilotage Authority for the River Tyne within the meaning of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, have in exercise of the powers vested in them by that Act from time to time made and submitted for the consent of Her Majesty, certain Bye-laws and Regulations which were approved by Orders in Council dated respectively the thirtieth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, the eighth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the twenty-eighth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and the eleventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven :

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint James, New Bury, and of the district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley in the said county of Lancaster, and in the said diocese of Manchester which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and district parish respectively.

“And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint James, New Bury, and of the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Thomas situate at Dixon Green aforesaid.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he the said Bishop has signed and sealed this representation) with the consent of the Right Honourable Orlando George Charles Earl of Bradford the patron of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint James, New Bury, aforesaid (in testimony whereof he the said Earl has signed and sealed this representation) and with the consents of the trustees of the estates devised by the late William Hulme Esquire the patrons of the vicarage of the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley (in testimony whereof they the said trustees have affixed their common or corporate seal to this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint James New Bury and of the said district parish of Farnworth and Kearsley which are described in the schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Thomas situate at Dixon Green aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Thomas, Dixon Green.’

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a certain portion of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Saint Michael and All Angels, Bedford Park, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and published in the London Gazette of the thirty-first day of the same month it was ordered that the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park should be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and should and might be jointly exercised by the Reverend Alfred Wilson of Chiswick in the said county of Middlesex Clerk in Holy Orders and Jonathan Thomas Carr of No. 15, Warwick-street Regent-street in the same county Gentleman and their heirs and assigns for the first of the presentation and if a second turn of presentation should occur within the space of seven years from the day of the date of the said publication of the said Order in the London Gazette then for such second turn of presentation also.

"And whereas the said Alfred Wilson and the said Jonathan Thomas Carr did accordingly jointly present a Clerk to the said benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park and the same benefice is now full and the second turn of presentation thereto has not yet occurred and (as appears by the date of the said Order) the seven years above mentioned have not yet elapsed.

"And whereas the said Alfred Wilson and Jonathan Thomas Carr are desirous that the said second turn of presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park so jointly vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London in whom and in his successors the whole remainder (after the said first and second turns of presentation and the said period of seven years) of the right of patronage and advowson of the same benefice is already by the said Order absolutely vested.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John now Bishop of the said diocese of London is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the Bishoprick of London the said proposed transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said John Bishop of London has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park (being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage or advowson arises and exists) by rendering the said benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of funds under our control.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Alfred Wilson and Jonathan Thomas Carr (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said John Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the second (being the next) turn of presentation to the said benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park which now (if the same shall occur within the space of seven years from the said thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine) is vested jointly in the said Alfred Wilson and Jonathan Thomas Carr and their heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said Alfred Wilson and Jonathan Thomas Carr and from their heirs and assigns to the said John or other the Bishop of the said diocese of London as such Bishop; and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and be exercised by the said John Bishop of London or other the Bishop of London for the time being from and after and by means of which transfer the whole advowson and perpetual patronage of the said benefice of Saint Michael and All Angels Bedford Park will be vested in such Bishop and his successors Bishops of the said diocese of London for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Saint Mary at Brighton in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester:

Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary, Brighton, is vested in the vicar of the parish of Brighton for the time being in right of his vicarage.

"And whereas three persons, that is to say, Charles Alfred Elliott, Esquire, of your Majesty's Indian Civil Service, a Companion of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, and Eling Frances Julia Elliott of the Warren, Saint Leonards-on-Sea, in the said county of Sussex, Spinster, and Blanche Ellen Elliott of number three, Oxford-terrace, Saint Leonards-on-Sea in the same county Spinster have together provided to our satisfaction for the benefit of the said benefice of Saint Mary, Brighton, certain railway debenture stocks producing a perpetual annual income of one hundred pounds and have done this upon the understanding and condition that the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the same benefice shall be transferred as is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Venerable John Hannah, Archdeacon of Lewes and now vicar of the parish of Brighton aforesaid is consenting to the said transfer of the said advowson and patronage as by his execution of this scheme appears.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Richard, now Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, is also consenting to the said proposed transfer and in token of such his consent (which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary) he the said Richard Bishop of Chichester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that under the circumstances aforesaid the transfer of the advowson and perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Brighton which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Mary Brighton being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said John Hannah (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Richard Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Mary Brighton and the church thereof now vested in the said John Hannah as such vicar of the parish of Brighton as aforesaid shall be transferred from the said John Hannah and from his successors in the same vicarage to the said Charles Alfred Elliott and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be fully and freely exercised by the said Charles Alfred Elliott and his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.
