

limits and boundaries whereof are well known and defined.

"That according to the census of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one the population of the said parish of Broad Chalke is eight hundred and eleven and the population of the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke is four hundred and sixty-four.

"That the annual value of the vicarage of Broad Chalke with Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke aforesaid exclusive of the annual value of the vicarage house and appurtenances at Broad Chalke aforesaid and of the glebe-house and appurtenances situate at Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke and hereinafter mentioned amounts to the sum of three hundred and eleven pounds or thereabouts arising from glebe and tithe rent-charge namely in respect of glebe the sum of seventy-one pounds and in respect of tithe rent-charge the sum of two hundred and forty pounds or thereabouts of which tithe rent-charge the sum of one hundred pounds arises and is payable in respect of the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke.

"That there is in the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke a church or chapel which is distant from the church of the said parish of Broad Chalke two miles.

"That the church or chapel in the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke is kept in good repair by the inhabitants of the said parochial chapelry and that it is capable of affording sufficient accommodation to the said inhabitants who from time immemorial have resorted to the said chapel and have elected from amongst themselves exclusively chapel-wardens as if the same were a distinct and separate benefice.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants of the said parochial chapelry have any right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any of the pews or sittings in the parish church of Broad Chalke nor does it appear that any persons other than the inhabitants of the said parochial chapelry have any right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any of the pews or sittings in the church or chapel of the said parochial chapelry.

"That there is a glebe-house or parsonage belonging to the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke and such glebe-house or parsonage is now usually occupied by the licensed stipendiary curate of the said parochial chapelry.

"That baptisms churchings marriages and burials have heretofore been and are now performed in the said church or chapel and the burial-ground thereto belonging.

"That the patronage of the vicarage and parish church of Broad Chalke aforesaid with the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke is vested in the Provost of the King's College of the Blessed Mary and Saint Nicholas Cambridge and the Scholars of the same college.

"That the Reverend Cecil Gurden Moore, Clerk M.A. is now the vicar thereof.

"That the vicarage of Broad Chalke with Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke is discharged from the payment of first fruits and tenths.

"That in view of the proposed separation as hereinafter mentioned of the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke from the said church and vicarage of Broad Chalke the said Provost and Scholars as such patrons as aforesaid and also as being owners of the rectorial tithe arising out of the said parish of Broad Chalke with Burr Chalke have offered to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England the capital sum of eight hundred and fifty-six pounds as a benefaction to the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke upon the same being constituted a separate benefice and the said Commissioners have undertaken on the condition that the severance of the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke from the said parish of Broad Chalke be legally effected and that the vicarial tithe rent-charge together with the house and premises belonging to the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke be legally secured thereto to meet such benefaction with an annual grant of fifty pounds to be payable out of their common fund to the incumbent of the new benefice and his successors.

"That it appears to me that under the provisions of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter 106, the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke may be advantageously separated from the said vicarage and parish of Broad Chalke and be constituted a separate benefice for ecclesiastical purposes.

"That pursuant to the directions contained in the 26th section of the said Act I have prepared the following scheme which together with the consents thereto of the patrons and incumbent of the said vicarage I do submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace may if on full consideration and enquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the scheme and consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"The SCHEME above referred to.

"That the said ancient parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke shall be separated from the said vicarage and parish church of Broad Chalke and constituted a separate benefice by the name or style of 'The Perpetual Curacy of Bower Chalke.'

"That such new benefice shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said vicarage of Broad Chalke and the incumbent of the said new benefice shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the same respectively.

"That all or so much and such part of the tithe rent-charge or other payments or composition for or in lieu of tithes belonging to the said vicarage of Broad Chalke as arise and accrue or are or may be payable within or in respect of the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke and also the said glebe-house or parsonage with the appurtenances within and belonging to the said parochial chapelry and also all the surplice fees and all dues offerings and other emoluments arising within or in respect of the same parochial chapelry and usually payable to an incumbent of a benefice shall respectively belong and be attached to the said proposed new benefice of Bower Chalke for ever and be held received and enjoyed by the perpetual curate for the time being thereof accordingly.

"That the patronage or right of nominating a minister to the said proposed new benefice of Bower Chalke from time to time as and when the same shall become vacant shall be vested in the Provost and Scholars of the said College for the time being.

"That the inhabitants of the said parochial chapelry of Burr Chalke otherwise Bower Chalke shall subject to the provisions of the Church Rates Abolition Act continue and be liable to the repairs and maintenance of the church or chapel of the