

in connexion with the tramways first and secondly above-mentioned, and of all other passing places, and of the works and conveniences connected with the said tramways, and the right of demanding and taking in respect of the premises, the tolls, and charges authorized by a Provisional Order of the Board of Trade in the intended lease referred to. The term of the lease is to be 21 years, calculated from the 1st day of April, 1878. The rent reserved to be £1,729 per annum, and the lease is to contain the covenants and conditions next hereinafter generally described, namely, a covenant by the lessees to pay the rent by quarterly payments, and all taxes (except property tax), and other outgoings in respect of the tramways; not to carry goods, animals, or things other than passengers and passengers' luggage on the tramways, between 8 A.M. and 8 P.M., without the consent of the lessors; not to use carriages or trucks adapted for ordinary use on railways; to observe the regulations and bye-laws to be made by the lessors as in the lease mentioned; to permit the lessors, when required to use the tramways for sanitary purposes, and for the conveyance of materials required for any works of the lessors, free from toll; to carry, when required by the lessors, goods, minerals, and parcels in separate carriages or separate parts of carriages; to run carriages each way every morning and evening in the week, Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted, for artisans, mechanics, and labourers at fares not exceeding one halfpenny per mile (but with a maximum fare of one penny); to observe all rules and bye-laws of the Tramways Act, 1870, the said Provisional Order, or any general statutes for the time being affecting tramways, and which ought to be observed by the lessees; not to assign or underlet the premises without the consent, in writing, of the lessors, which is not to be withheld to any responsible and respectable persons, company, or corporation, and at the expiration of the term to deliver up the demised premises to the lessors; and the said lease is intended to contain a power for the lessors, upon notice, to determine the said term of 21 years in case of non-payment of rent for 21 days, or breach of any of the lessees' covenants, and a power also for the lessors to recover the said rent, with any arrears, by distress upon the carriages, horses, plant, and effects of the lessees upon any part of the tramways. And the said lease is also intended to contain a covenant by the lessors for quiet enjoyment by the lessees of the demised premises upon payment of the rent and observance of the lessees' covenants; that the lessors will maintain the demised tramways, with all proper appliances, in a sufficient state for all purposes of the traffic thereon, and will not exercise the powers conferred by section 19 of the said Provisional Order (namely, as to declaring the tramways to be open for use to the public) without the consent, in writing, of the lessees. And notice is further given, that a copy of the draft of the said intended lease is deposited for public inspection, during office hours, at the office of the Local Board, situate in Liverpool-road, Patricroft.—Dated the 1st day of October, 1880.
