THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

WAREHAM FAIRS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. By Memorial, dated the 22nd day of October, 1880, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices of the Peace sitting in Petty Sessions for the borough of Wareham, that Fairs have been annually held in the said borough on the 6th day of April and on the 30th day of August, in every year, except when such days fell on a Sunday, in which case the said Fairs were held on the following Monday, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the days for the holding of such Fairs should be altered, and that instead of being held as aforesaid, such Fairs should in future be held on the third Tuesday in April and the second Tuesday in September, in every year :

2. On the 9th day of December, 1880, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the said proposed alteration in the time for holding the said Fairs.

W. V. Harcourt.

Whitehall, November 9, 1880.

Civil Service Commission, November 11, 1880.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that an Open Competitive Examination for one situation as Extra Assistant Examiner of Binding in Her Majesty's Stationery Office will be held in London on Friday, the 17th December, 1880, under the Regulations dated 16th January, 1873, and published in the London Gazette of the 17th of the same month.

A Preliminary Examination will be held in London on Tuesday, the 14th December.

No person will be admitted to the Preliminary Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 4th December, an "application" in the handwriting of the Candidate on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

SAVINGS BANKS (INVESTMENT) REGULATIONS, 1880.

REGULATIONS under the Savings Bank Act, 1880, with respect to Investments in Government Stock by Depositors in Savings Banks, made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, with the consent of the National Debt Commissioners, so far as any Regulations relate to those Commissioners, and with the consent of the Postmaster-General, so far as any Regulations relate to Post Office Savings Banks.

Preliminary.

1. These regulations may be cited for all purposes as the Savings Banks (Investment) Regulations, 1880.

Commencement of Regulations.

2. These regulations come into operation on the twenty-second day of November, 1880.

3. In these regulations—

The masculine gender includes the feminine, and the singular number includes the plural ;

Interpretation.

The expression "Government Stock" means Consolidated Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, Reduced Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, and New Three per Cent. Bank Annuities ; The expression "Savings Bank Authority" means, as regards any Trustee Savings Bank, the trustees of that bank ; and, as regards the Post Office Savings Banks, the Postmaster-General ;

The expression "Trustees" includes managers ; and other expressions to which meanings are assigned by the Savings Banks Act, 1880, have in these regulations the same respective meanings.

In computing time for the purpose of these regulations there shall be excluded every day which is a Sunday, and every day which is a holiday within the meaning of the Bank Holidays Act, 1871, and the Holidays Extension Act, 1875.

*Investment and Sale of Stock by Savings Bank Depositors.**

Application by Depositor for Investment in Government Stock.

4. A depositor in a savings bank who desires either to invest a certain sum (not being less than 10*l.*) in Government stock, or to purchase a certain amount of Government stock (not being less than 10*l.* stock), must send to the savings bank authority, together with his deposit book, an application, signed by him on a form to be obtained at the bank in which he is a depositor, or in the case of a depositor in a Post Office savings bank, at any Post Office savings bank.

Within seven days from the receipt of such application the savings bank authority shall charge to the depositor's account the current price of the stock purchased and the commission, and enter the amount charged in his deposit book accordingly ; and within the same period shall credit the depositor in the stock registrar of the savings bank with the * NOTE.—The power of savings banks depositors to invest deposits in Government stock is conferred by section 3 of the Savings Banks Act, 1880, which provides that—

(a.) The sum invested shall not be less than 10*l.*, or the amount of the current price of 10*l.* stock, with the addition of the commission, whichever sum is least.

(b.) The amount of stock credited to any one account in any savings bank year (whether any stock has been previously sold or not) shall not exceed 100*l.* stock.

(c.) The whole amount of stock credited to any one account shall not exceed 300*l.* stock.

equivalent amount of stock, and shall send to the depositor a certificate thereof (in these regulations called an investment certificate), in the case of a Trustee savings bank in the form A in the schedule hereto annexed, and in the case of a Post Office savings bank in the form B in that schedule.

Dividends on Stock Purchased.

5. All dividends in respect of Government stock credited to a depositor in a savings bank shall be carried to his deposit account by the savings bank authority in like manner as interest on his deposit.

Provision in case of Transfer of Account from one Savings Bank to another.

6. Where a depositor having stock standing to his credit transfers his account—

From one Trustee savings bank to another Trustee savings bank; or,

From a Trustee savings banks to a Post Office savings bank; or,

he must send his investment certificate to the savings bank authority of the bank to which his account is transferred, who shall inscribe on the certificate a memorandum of the fact of the transfer, and return it to the depositor.

Application for Sale of Stock standing to Credit of Depositor.

7. A depositor in a savings bank who desires to sell the stock standing to his credit, or part of the stock (not being less than 10*l.* or than stock of the value of 10*l.* over and above the commission), must send to the savings bank authority, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at the bank in which he is a depositor, or, in the case of a depositor in a Post Office savings bank, at any Post Office savings bank.

Within seven days of the receipt of such application the savings bank authority shall write off the amount of stock sold from the stock standing to the credit of the depositor in the stock register of the savings bank, and shall credit his deposit account with the current price of the stock, less the commission, and shall forthwith pay the same over to him, and shall make entries in his deposit book accordingly.

The investment certificate in the case of a sale of the whole of the stock standing to the credit of the depositor shall be cancelled by the savings bank authority; and in the case of a sale of part of such stock the savings bank authority shall inscribe on the investment certificate a memorandum of the amount of the stock sold, and return it to the depositor.

Stock Certificates under the National Debt Act, 1870 (33 and 34 Vict., c. 71.)

8. A depositor in a savings bank who desires to obtain a stock certificate with coupons annexed under the National Debt Act, 1870,* for such amount of stock standing to his credit (being either 50*l.* or a multiple of 50*l.*) as is specified in the application, must send to the savings bank authority, together with his deposit book and investment certificate, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at the bank in which he is a depositor, or in the case of a depositor in a Post Office saving bank, at any Post Office savings bank.

On the receipt of the application the savings bank authority shall procure the required certificate through the National Debt Commissioners, and shall write off the corresponding amount of stock from the stock standing to the credit of the depositor in the stock register of the savings bank.

The investment certificate, in the case of a stock certificate with coupons annexed being obtained for the whole of the stock standing to the credit of the depositor, shall be cancelled by the savings bank authority; and in the case of a stock certificate with coupons annexed being obtained for part of such stock, the savings bank authority shall inscribe on the investment certificate a memorandum of the amount of such part, and return it to the depositor.

The fee for the stock certificate and the amount of the commission will be charged to the deposit account of the depositor and entered in his book accordingly.

The stock certificate shall be delivered to the depositor on his attending at the savings bank named in his application and giving a receipt for the same: Provided that a depositor who is unable through infirmity, illness, or other sufficient cause, established to the satisfaction of the savings bank authority, to attend personally, may by an order under his hand authorize the bearer of such order to receive the stock certificate on his account, and the receipt of such person shall be a good discharge to the savings bank authority*.

Loss or Destruction of Investment Certificate.

9. On proof to the satisfaction of the savings bank authority of the loss or destruction of any investment certificate furnished by them under these regulations, the savings bank authority may furnish a new certificate.

Commission on Investments, Sales, &c.

10. The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of stock, shall be as under, viz.:

For Investment (including Receipt of Dividends).

On stock not exceeding 25 l. ...	0	9

On stock exceeding 100 l. and not exceeding 200 l. ...	2	9
On stock exceeding 200 l. and not exceeding 300 l. ...	3	3

The commission on procuring a stock certificate with coupons annexed, under the National Debt Act, 1870, shall be the same as on sale of stock, which commission will be in addition to the fee payable to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the certificate.

National Debt Commissioners to open Account at Bank of England.

11. The National Debt Commissioners shall open a stock account at the Bank of England, to be entitled "The Savings Bank Investment Account," and shall keep to that account such amount and description of Government stock as is sufficient to meet the amounts and description of stock credited to depositors in savings banks in pursuance of the Savings Banks Act, 1880.

Commissioners to provide Stock required by Savings Bank Authorities.

12. On receipt of an application from a depositor for any part of the sum standing to the credit of his deposit account to be invested in Government stock, the savings bank authority shall forthwith notify to the National Debt Commissioners the amount and description of stock required, or the amount proposed to be invested in stock, and shall at the same time certify that sufficient money to meet the application is standing to the credit of the depositor.

The Commissioners within four days from the receipt of the notice shall cause the required amount of stock to be placed to the credit of the Savings Bank Investment Account, either—by transferring the required amount of stock from the stock of the same description held by them on account of the fund for the banks for savings, or of the Post Office Savings Banks Fund, the price being calculated according to the current price; or—by purchasing the required amount of stock through their broker, in which case the purchase money shall be paid by warrant drawn on the cash account of the fund for the banks for savings, or the Post Office Savings Bank Fund, as the case may be.

The stock so transferred or purchased shall be placed to the credit of the Savings Bank Investment Account at the Bank of England, and shall be held by the Commissioners on account of the savings bank authority; and the account of the Commissioners shall be discharged of the corresponding amount of cash due to such authority by the Commissioners, and the savings bank authority shall be advised accordingly.

In the case of Trustee savings banks the account of the Commissioners shall be discharged of the amount of the commission in addition to the price of the stock.

All dividends in respect of stock held by the Commissioners on account of a savings bank authority shall be credited to the savings bank authority as received by the Commissioners, and the savings bank authority shall be advised accordingly.

Commissioners to dispose of Stock on request of Savings Bank Authorities.

13. On the receipt of an application from a depositor to sell a portion or the whole of the stock standing to his credit, the savings bank authority shall forthwith notify to the National Debt Commissioners, the particulars of the request, and shall at the same time certify that there is a sufficient amount of stock standing to the credit of the depositor in their stock register to meet the application; and the Commissioners shall within four days from the receipt of such notice advise the savings bank authority of the current price of such stock.

The Commissioners, as they may deem expedient, shall either transfer the required amount of stock from the Savings Bank Investment Account to the fund for the banks for savings, or the Post Office Savings Banks Fund, as the case may be, or sell the required amount of stock through their broker; and they shall credit the savings bank authority with the current price of the stock. In the case of Trustee savings banks, the amount of the commission shall be deducted from the price of the stock.

Commissioners to obtain Stock Certificates under National Debt Act, 1870, on request of Savings Bank Authorities.

14. On receipt of an application from a depositor that a stock certificate with coupons annexed under the National Debt Act, 1870, may be obtained for him, the savings bank authority shall forthwith notify the particulars of the request to the National Debt Commissioners, and shall at the same time certify that there is a sufficient amount of stock standing to the credit of the depositor in their stock register to meet the application, and that there is sufficient money standing to the credit of the depositor's deposit account to pay for the commission and fees.

On receipt of such notice from the savings bank authority, the Commissioners shall forthwith procure from the Governor and Company to the Bank of England the required certificate, and transmit the same to the savings bank authority for delivery to the depositor, and shall write off the corresponding amount of stock from the Savings Bank Investment Account; and in the case of Trustee savings banks, the Commissioners shall debit their account with the proper amount of commission and fees payable to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

Current Price for Stock Transactions.

15. "The current price" for the purposes of the Savings Banks Act, 1880, and of these regulations, means in the case of an actual purchase or sale of stock the sum given or realized by the National Debt Commissioners irrespective of commission; and in other cases means the average price certified for the day on which the application for purchase or sale is received by the National Debt Commissioners from the savings bank authority, by the Cashier of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England under the Act 10 Geo. 4, c. 24, intituled "An Act to enable the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to grant life annuities and annuities for terms of years;" and such price shall be duly certified by the National Debt Commissioners to the savings bank authority whenever business is transacted by the Commissioners for such authority.

Application of Commission payable under these Regulations.

16. The National Debt Commissioners will out of the commission received by them under these regulations in respect of the business transacted for any Trustee savings bank pay to the savings bank authority of such bank such proportion as the said authority may require, not exceeding five-sixths of the commission in any case; and the balance of such commission shall be applied towards the expenses incurred by the Commissioners in the execution of section three of the Savings Banks Act, 1880, in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

The commission paid by depositors in Post Office savings banks under these regulations shall be applied in defraying the expenses incurred in the execution of section three of the Savings Banks Act, 1880, in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

Application of Savings Banks Enactments and Regulations.

17. Subject to these regulations, all enactments and regulations for the time being in force relating to Trustee savings banks and Post Office savings banks respectively, shall so far as is consistent with the tenour thereof be construed to apply to stock standing to the credit of any depositor in a Trustee savings bank or a Post Office savings bank as the case may be, as if such stock were a deposit.

(No. 195.)—MEDITERRANEAN—SARDINIA—
SOUTH-WEST COAST—SAN PIETRO ISLAND.
Cape Sandalo—Fixed and Flashing Light Re-

WITH reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 82 (2), of 15th May, 1880, on the temporary exhibition of a fixed light on Cape Sandalo, western point of San Pietro Island—pending repairs to the machinery of the permanent light:—

The Italian Government has given further notice, dated 12th October, 1880, that the permanent light (of the first order) is re-exhibited. The light is a fixed white light with flashes every minute.

By command of their Lordships,

Fredk. J. Evans, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
25th October, 1880.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Sardinia to Malta, No. 165; Sardinia, No. 161a. Also, Admiralty List of Lights in the Mediterranean, 1880, No. 208; and Mediterranean Pilot, Vol. I, 1873, page 426.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 196.)—BALTIC ENTRANCE—THE KATTEGAT.
COAST OF SWEDEN.

THE Swedish Government has given notice, that on 15th October, 1880, leading lights would be exhibited from Knippelholm and from Carnegieska Factory, approach to Göteborg (Gothenburg)—and that at the same date the leading light previously shown from Elfsborg Fortress would be discontinued.

1. KNIPPELHOLM.—In lieu of Elfsborg light, a fixed light is exhibited from the south-east angle of the keeper's dwelling (red) on the south-east part of Knippelholm, showing white within the channel, but red northward of the bearing S. 80° E., over Skalkorgarne and other shoals—it is elevated 25 feet above the sea.

Position, lat. 57° 41' 0" N., long. 11° 49' 20" E.

2. CARNEGIESKA.—Two fixed red lights, 58 yards apart, are exhibited from pillars (near the shore) in Carnegieska Factory—the outer light is elevated 62 feet above the sea, the inner light 87 feet.

The illuminating apparatus is catoptric, or by reflectors.

Approaching Göteborg, the lights at Carnegieska must be kept in line.

NOTE.—Carnegieska Factory is not marked on the Swedish charts.

(2.) Warberg—Alterations in Western Mole Light.
Also, that the following alterations have been made in the light exhibited on the Western Mole at Warberg:—

The light (fixed) now shows red over the harbour (through south) to the bearing of N. 65° E.; and white between the bearings of N. 65° E. and N. 41° E. between the bearing of N. 41° E. and the shore it is obscured. The sector of white light should be visible in clear weather from a distance of 4 miles, the red light is of much less power.

Vessels approaching Warberg should keep in the sector of white light, in order to avoid Ryggen and Masten Shoals on the one hand, and Skalklippan (Sätklippan) Rock on the other hand—when abreast Warberg Fortress, steer more to the northward and enter the red light.

NOTE.—Masten Shoal is not named in the latest Swedish charts, nor mentioned in the Swedish sailing directions.

To authorise the Company to enter upon and open the surface of, and to alter and stop up, remove, and otherwise interfere with streets, turnpike roads, highways, public roadways, footpaths, watercourses, sewers, drains, pavements, thoroughfares, water pipes, gas pipes, and electric telegraph pipes, and apparatus within all or any of the parishes or places mentioned in this notice for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, repairing, removing, renewing, or reinstating the proposed tramways and works, or of substituting others in their place, or for other the purposes of the intended Act.

To authorise the Company for all or any of the purposes of their undertaking to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement, or to take easements over lands and houses, and to erect offices, buildings, or other conveniences on any such lands.

To authorise the Company to make from time to time such crossings, passing places, siding, junctions, turnouts, and other works, in addition to those particularly specified in this Notice, as may be necessary or convenient for the efficient working of their Tramways, or any of them, or for facilitating the passage of traffic along streets, or for providing access to any stables or carriage, sheds, or works, or buildings of the Company.

To empower the Company where, by reason of the execution of any work affecting the surface or soil of any street, road, or thoroughfare, or otherwise it is necessary or expedient to remove or discontinue the use of any Tramway, or any part thereof, to make in the same or any adjacent street, road, or thoroughfare in any parish or place mentioned in this Notice, and to maintain so long as occasion may require, a temporary Tramway or temporary Tramways in lieu of the Tramway or part of a Tramway so removed or discontinued to be used or intended so to be.

To empower the Company to levy tolls and charges for the use of the intended Tramways, such tolls and charges being levied either upon or in respect of carriages using the Tramways other than the carriages of the Company, and the traffic conveyed thereon, or upon, or in respect of passengers or other traffic conveyed on the intended Tramways in the carriages of the Company, and to alter the existing tolls and charges which the Company are, by the "Gosport Street Tramways Act, 1879," authorised to demand and take.

To empower the Company to grant licenses for the use of the Tramways, and reserve to the Company and their licensees the exclusive right of using on the Tramways carriages with flange wheels or other wheels specially or particularly adapted to run on the Tramways.

To empower the Company on the one hand, and any local board trustees, bodies, or persons having respectively the control or management of any streets or roads along which tramways are intended to be laid, or any of them, on the other hand, to enter into contracts or agreements with respect to the alteration of the levels of any such streets, the laying down, maintaining, renewing, repairing, working, and using of the proposed Tramways, and the rails, plates, sleepers, and works connected therewith, and for facilitating the passage of carriages and traffic over and along the same.

To empower the Company and the Provincial Tramways Company (Limited), to make and carry into effect agreements with reference to the working, use, management, and maintenance of the intended Tramways, and otherwise in relation thereto.

To extend the time for the construction of the Tramways authorized by the "Gosport Street Tramways Act, 1879."

To alter and amend Section 23 of the "Gosport Street Tramways Act, 1879," prescribing the gauge of the Tramways by that Act authorized, and to empower the Company to construct such Tramways on the gauge of 3 feet.

To empower the Company from time to time, and upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the intended Act, to work the intended Tramways and the Tramways authorized by the "Gosport Street Tramways Act, 1879," or any part or parts thereof respectively by steam or other mechanical power.

To authorise the Company to increase their capital for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to raise further capital by new ordinary or preference shares, and by borrowing, and to apply their authorised capital or any part thereof to all or any of such purposes, and to authorise the Company to apply to the like purposes, and to the general purposes of their undertaking, all or any part of the capital which they now are or may by the intended Act be authorised to raise.

And the intended Act will vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way impede or interfere with any of its objects, and will confer other rights and privileges.

The intended Act will alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes thereof, the provisions or some of the provisions of the following Acts, viz.:—"The Tramways Act 1870," "The Gosport Street Tramways Act 1879," and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company.

And notice is hereby further given that plans and sections of the said intended Tramways, with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Southampton, at his office at Winchester, and that a copy of the said Notice, and of so much of the plans, sections, and book of reference as relate to the Parishes in or through which the said intended Tramways will be situate will on or before the same day be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such Parish at his residence.

On or before the 21st day of December, 1880, printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Hyde Gas.

(Acquisition of Lands; Extension of Works; Additional Capital; Manufacture, Sale, and Supply of Engines, Stoves, and Fittings; Pressure, Quality, and Illuminating Power; Patent Rights; Levying of Rates, Rents, and Charges; Repeal, Amendment, and Incorporation of Acts; and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session by the Hyde Gas Company (hereinafter called the Company) for an Act for all or some of the following objects and purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to purchase, by agreement or at the option of the Company, to take on lease and hold the lands hereinafter described, and on such lands, or some part or parts thereof, to erect, make, and maintain additional buildings, works, and conveniences for the manufacture, storage, and distribution of gas or any residual products arising therefrom, and to manufacture and store gas and such residuals, and to make such roadways, bridges, tunnels, and approaches to such lands as they may think fit.

The lands so proposed to be acquired, and the limits within which it is intended that additional gasworks, or works for the manufacture or conversion of residual products, shall be constructed are as follows (that is to say):—

All that piece of land situate in the township of Hyde, in the parish of Stockport, and county of Chester, adjoining the existing gasworks and lands of the Company, and bounded on or towards the north-west for a distance of 165 feet, measured from Raglan-street, by a narrow slip of land 18 feet in width, belonging, or reputed to belong, to Alexander Thornely Hibbert and Robert Hibbert, and used, or intended to be used, by them as a road to their cotton factory; on or towards the north-east for a distance of 357 feet by land belonging, or reputed to belong, to the said Alexander Thornely Hibbert and Robert Hibbert; on or towards the south-east for a distance of 96 feet, and on or towards the south-west for a distance of 75 feet, and further on or towards the south-east for a distance of 69 feet by the said gasworks and lands, and further on or towards the south-west for a distance of 282 feet by Raglan-street, and which piece of land so proposed to be purchased and used for gas purposes contains 5,970 superficial square yards or thereabouts.

To authorize the Company to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock attaching, if the Company think fit, to such shares or stock, or any part thereof, a preference or priority of dividend over the existing or ordinary shares of the Company, or other special privileges, and by borrowing on mortgage or bond or otherwise and by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by any of such methods, and upon such terms and conditions as the Bill shall define, or Parliament may prescribe, and to apply such additional capital for the purposes of the intended Act, and the general purposes of the undertaking of the Company, and also to authorize the Company to apply for all or any part of the purposes of the intended Act any funds and capital now belonging to or authorized to be raised by them.

To authorize the Company to manufacture, purchase, provide, supply, sell, let on hire, use and otherwise deal in gas and other fittings, engines, stoves, ranges, pipes, and other apparatus for the warming and ventilating of houses, buildings, or other places for the cooking of food, and all other purposes for which gas can or may be used, and to levy and recover rents and charges for the sale, supply, letting, or use of such fittings, engines, stoves, ranges, pipes, and other apparatus, and to exempt the same from distress or execution.

To make further provisions with respect to the pressure, quality, and illuminating power of the gas to be supplied, and the testing thereof, and the inspection of meters, the discontinuance of supply, the rendering of accounts, and other matters relating to the supply of gas.

To authorize the Company to purchase, take, hold, and use patent rights or licences, or authorities under letters patent for the use of inventions relative to the manufacture, production, conversion, utilization, or distribution of gas or residual products, the manufacture of meters and other gas fittings, stoves, and apparatus, or to the lighting and extinguishing of gas by electricity or other means.

To empower the Company to demand and recover rates, rents, and charges, and to alter existing rates, rents, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from rates, rents, and charges, and to provide for the allowance of discount, and for requiring security for the payment of rents and charges.

To repeal section 19 of the Hyde Gas Act, 1855, limiting the number of shares to be held by one person.

So far as may be necessary or expedient to alter and amend the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the Hyde Gas Act, 1855, the Dukinfield and Denton Local Boards Gas Act, 1877.

To alter repeal, amend, or render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of all or some of the following public Acts:—The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and to incorporate or re-enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the enactments of all or some of the above-mentioned Acts.

To confer upon the Company all other rights, powers, privileges, and authorities necessary or convenient for carrying into complete and full effect the objects and purposes of the intended Act, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with those objects and purposes, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the intended Act or Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Tuckton Bridge.

(Incorporation of Company; Power to construct a Road and Bridge over the River Stour, in the Parish of Christchurch; and to levy Tolls).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act (hereinafter called "the intended Act") for the following purposes, or some of them, that is to say:

To incorporate a Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), and to enable the Company to make and maintain the following road and bridge, with all proper approaches, works, and conveniences connected therewith respectively, that is to say:—

A road in continuation of the Stour road, commencing by a junction with that road at its present termination, at or near the Marsh Ditch, thence passing in a south-westerly direction, and crossing the river Stour by means of a bridge, with all proper piers, abutments, and other works and conveniences connected therewith, and terminating in Green Low lane at or near the point where that lane joins the public road leading from Wick to Pokesdown, and which intended road and bridge will be wholly situate within the parish of Christchurch, in the county of Southampton.

To empower the Company to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended road and bridge to such an extent as may be prescribed or authorised by the intended Act.

To authorise the Company to be incorporated as aforesaid, to purchase lands and buildings by compulsion or agreement, for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights, powers, and privileges connected with such lands and buildings, or which may interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To authorise the Company to levy tolls, rates, and duties in respect of the use of the said road, bridge, and works, and to grant exemptions therefrom, and to alter and abolish all existing tolls and charges, and to alter and abolish all existing rights of ferry (if any), or to purchase such rights within such distance from the intended bridge as may be prescribed by the intended Act, and to provide that no ferry shall be maintained within such distance as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

To cross, stop up, alter or otherwise vary, whether temporarily or permanently, any high-ways, tramways, railways, streets, thoroughfares, streams, rivers, waters, drains, pipes, sewers, and watercourses, and other works which it may be necessary to cross or interfere with in the construction or use of the said intended road, bridge, and works.

And notice is hereby further given that on or before the 30th day of November, 1880, duplicate plans and sections of the said intended road and bridge, and a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Southampton at his office at Winchester, and on or before the said 30th day of November, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference and a copy of this Notice, published as aforesaid, will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of the parish of Christchurch at his residence.

On or before the 21st day of December, 1880, printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.
