

FORM E.

Indorsement on Licence.

The Order of Council under which this Licence is issued provides, in effect, as follows :

(a.) This licence shall not be available except when accompanied by the certificate or declaration on which it is granted.

(b.) The person granting the licence shall, for the identification of the certificate or declaration produced to him, mark the certificate or declaration by signing his name thereon, with the date of its production to him.

(c.) The person granting the licence shall deliver the certificate or declaration with the licence to the person receiving the licence from him.

Caution.—Persons acting without such a licence where such a licence is necessary, or acting thereon after the licence has expired, or counterfeiting, fabricating, or altering, or obtaining or endeavouring to obtain a licence by means of a false pretence, or granting or issuing a licence knowing the same to be false in any respect, or committing other offences with respect to licences are liable, under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, to fine and imprisonment.

The number and description of animals inserted in the licence must be the same as the number and description in the certificate or declaration on which the licence is granted.

THE METROPOLITAN CATTLE MARKET (FOOT - AND - MOUTH DISEASE) TEMPORARY ORDER OF 1881.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 3rd day of January, 1881.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:
Lord President.
Mr. Mundella.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1878,) and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. This Order may be cited as The Metropolitan Cattle Market (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Temporary Order of 1881.

2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the eighth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one; and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, except as regards the recovery of any penalty incurred thereunder before that day; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Animals Order.

3.—(a.) Animals exposed for sale in the Metropolitan Cattle Market, at Islington, in the Metropolis, shall not be moved out of the area of that Market (including the lairs within that area), but shall be slaughtered within that area, except as follows :

(b.) Animals may be moved out of that area to a slaughter-house in the Metropolis for the purpose of being there slaughtered :

(a.) Provided that cattle so moved shall, before they are moved, be marked by the owner, consignee, or other person exposing the cattle in that Market, at his own expense, by clipping the hair off the end of the tail of each of them.

4. Animals which have been exposed for sale in the Metropolitan Cattle Market—

(a.) shall be slaughtered within ten days after such exposure; and

(b.) shall not during those ten days be exposed in any market other than the Metropolitan Cattle Market; and

(c.) shall not during those ten days be exposed or exhibited in or at any fair, exhibition, sale by public auction or other public sale of animals in the Metropolis; and

(d.) shall not be moved alive out of the Metropolis.

5.—(a.) If a head of cattle required by this Order to be marked is not so marked, the owner, consignee, or other person exposing or exhibiting the same, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(b.) If an animal required by this Order to be slaughtered is not so slaughtered, the person failing to cause the same to be so slaughtered shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

(c.) If an animal is moved in contravention of the provisions of this Order, the owner thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the company or person moving or conveying the animal, shall, each according to and in respect of his or their own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1878.

6. The Order of Council dated the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, relating to animals exposed for sale in the Metropolitan Cattle Market, is, as from the commencement of this Order, hereby revoked; but nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under that Order, before this Order takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, that Order.

C. L. Peel.

THE MARKETS AND FAIRS TEMPORARY ORDER OF 1881.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 3rd day of January, 1881.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:
Lord President.
Mr. Mundella.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878,
