

thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words following; that is to say:—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate in the hamlet tithing or chapelry of Corston within the limits of the parish of Saint Paul Malmesbury in the county of Wilts and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

“ Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate in the hamlet tithing or chapelry of Corston as aforesaid.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Paul Malmesbury which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the limits of the two contiguous chapelries tithings or hamlets of Corston and Rodbourne all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of All Saints situate in the chapelry tithing or hamlet of Corston as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Corston with Rodbourne.’

“ And with the like consent of the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of All Saints situate in the hamlet tithing or chapelry of Corston as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“ We therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol in the Registries at Gloucester and Bristol respectively.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of January, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words following; that is to say:

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty chapter forty-nine of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter sixty and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul situate at Kingston Hill in the new parish of Norbiton in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Norbiton which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul situate at Kingston Hill as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Paul Kingston Hill.’

“ And with the like consent of the said Anthony Wilson Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages baptisms churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul situate at Kingston Hill as aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any inten-
