

bent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the east by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale on the north partly by the new parish of Saint Peter Scorton and partly by the new parish of Saint Luke Winmarleigh all in the county and diocese aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say on the south-west and on the south by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke Winmarleigh from the parish of Saint Helen Garstang otherwise called or known as Church Town aforesaid at a point at or near to the Winmarleigh Railway Station where the line of the Garstang and Knot End Railway crosses the road leading from Helm Farm past the said railway station, Three Lane Ends and Brook House into Longmore-lane and extending thence that is from the said boundary first southward and then generally south-eastward along the middle of the said road for a distance of seventy-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Longmore-lane aforesaid at or near to which point of junction a boundary-stone inscribed 'G. St. T. D. C. 1880 No. 1' has been placed and extending thence eastward and in a direct line for a distance of one mile and a quarter or thereabouts to a boundary-stone inscribed 'G. St. T. D. C. 1880, No. 2,' and placed at or near to the point where Kettle-lane joins the road leading from Cockerham to Church Town and extending thence that is from the last-mentioned boundary-stone south-eastward to and along the middle of the last-described road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to a boundary-stone inscribed 'G. St. T. D. C. 1880, No. 3,' and placed on the eastern side of the said last-described road at or near to its junction with the roadway leading past Hag Wood to Kirkland Hall and extending thence that is from the last-described point eastward to the last-mentioned boundary-stone and continuing thence due eastward and in a straight line for a distance of two and a half chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the River Wyre upon the boundary which divides the township of Kirkland in the said parish of Saint Helen Garstang otherwise called or known as Church Town from the township of Barnacre with Bonds in the same parish and extending thence generally south-eastward along the said township boundary for a distance of one mile and six chains or thereabouts thereby following the course of the River Wyre aforesaid to the point where the said river is joined by the River Calder and where the said township boundary joins the boundary which divides the said township of Barnacre with Bonds from the township of Catterall in the parish of Saint Helen Garstang otherwise called or known as Church Town aforesaid and extending thence generally eastward along the last-mentioned township boundary for a distance of one mile and twenty-one and a half chains or thereabouts thereby following in part the course of the River Calder aforesaid to the point at the northern end of the Catterall Basin of the Preston and Lancaster Canal where the same township boundary strikes the said canal and extending thence north-eastward along the same township boundary thereby following the course of the canal aforesaid for a distance of one and a half chains or thereabouts to the point at the canal feeder where the said township boundary diverges from the said canal in a south-easterly direction and continuing thence still north-eastward along the middle of the same canal for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Wray-lane over the said canal and extending thence first eastward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts thereby passing under the line of the Lancaster and Preston Railway to the boundary at the junction of the said last-named lane with Sandholme-lane opposite to the house called or known as Ringing Hill which boundary divides the said parish of Saint Helen Garstang otherwise called or known as Church Town from the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist Calder Vale aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of January, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty chapter thirty-nine have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Norton-juxta-Malton in the county of York and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Norton-juxta-Malton is now vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Arthur Howland Jackson of Malton aforesaid Gentleman.

"And whereas Robert Hartley Bower of Welham near Malton aforesaid Esquire and Thomas Preston of Norton aforesaid Esquire have (as the said Arthur Howland Jackson by his execution of this present scheme as hereinafter mentioned doth acknowledge) paid to the said Arthur Howland Jackson for his own use and benefit and as the price of the said advowson and perpetual right of patronage a certain sum to wit the sum of five hundred pounds upon condition that he the said Arthur Howland Jackson shall transfer the same advowson or perpetual right of patronage for the whole of his said estate and interest therein to the Archbishop of York for the time being and his successors and shall for that purpose and to that intent execute this scheme as hereinbefore and hereinafter is mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William now Archbishop of York is willing to accept for himself and his successors in