

the See of York the said proposed transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said William Archbishop of York has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas a sum of one hundred pounds sterling has been paid over to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England by the said William Archbishop of York to be held by us for the benefit of the said benefice of Norton-juxta-Malton but upon condition that the transfer of the patronage of the same benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall be made and the said William Archbishop of York has further undertaken if such last-mentioned transfer of patronage be effected to offer and provide a further benefaction of the value of five hundred pounds in aid of the endowment of the said benefice and in order to obtain from us the said Commissioners an equivalent grant out of the common fund under our control; and, under the circumstances aforesaid, it appears to us that the said transfer of patronage will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or chapelry of Norton-juxta-Malton being the parish or cure in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Arthur Howland Jackson in whom as aforesaid the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Norton-juxta-Malton is now (subject as aforesaid) vested and with the consents of the said Robert Hartley Bower and Thomas Preston as the purchasers of the same advowson or perpetual right of patronage as aforesaid (in testimony whereof each of them the said Arthur Howland Jackson Robert Hartley Bower and Thomas Preston has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said William Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Norton-juxta-Malton now vested in the said Arthur Howland Jackson as aforesaid (subject to the purchase of the same by the said Robert Hartley Bower and Thomas Preston as aforesaid) shall be transferred from the said Arthur Howland Jackson and (according to their estate and interest therein) from the said Robert Hartley Bower and Thomas Preston to the said William Archbishop of York and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said William Archbishop of York and his successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of January, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows; viz.:

In the churchyard of the parish of Epworth, in the county of Lincoln, to the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the churchyard of the parish of Wymondham, in the county of Norfolk, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the churchyard of the parish of Barrow, in the county of Suffolk, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In Bickerton Churchyard, in the county of Chester, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the parish churchyard of Welwyn, in the county of Herts, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the parish churchyard of Owston, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

C. L. Peel.