

and the next day towards Antoin on the Sebelle, between Conde and Tournay. On the third our Governor General and Prince Waldeck marched from Enghien to Chieures beyond Cambrai intending, as we are told, to follow the Enemy towards Tournay. Three English Regiments are sent into Quarters at Ghent and Bruges.

Paris, Octob. 8. We have advice that the Elector of Bavaria is advanced into the Neighborhood of Fribourg, and that 'tis not without some important design that he moves thus towards Suifferland. It is said here, That the Armies in Flanders are again within a League of each other; and that Monsieur Calvo has joyned the Marechal d'Humieres with the Troops under his Command. Monsieur de Saugnetay is declared Minister of State, and in that quality took on Tuesday last his place in the Council.

Dembroke, Sept. 25. On Monday last came into this Harbour the Sea Adventure, Captain John Tackey Commander, who parted from Carbery for the 19th instant. He says his Grace the Duke of Schomberg continued encamp near Dunalk; That divers Papists were come in, to pray his Grace's Protection; That the two Armies were within 7 Miles of each other; and that some Rebels appeared sometimes in Parties, but would not stand to engage the Muskelling men, who were continually abroad in Detachments to observe them.

Chester, Septemb. 30. The last Week sailed from Highlake a great many Ships with Provisions for Carlingford. We have no News from Ireland; but what we hear by a person that came lately from Dublin, who gives an account of the sad condition of the Protestants there, those that were out upon Bail being again made Prisoners, with many others, and that several great Houses are turned into Goals. That the Irish Army was numerous, but ill armed and in great want of Ammunition.

Falmouth, Septemb. 23. Yesterday came here the Arms of Fishing in Zealand, laden with Sugars from Surinam. She hath been some time in Milford Haven.

Portsmouth, Septemb. 28. Yesterday came to Spithead their Majesties Ships the Greyhound, and this day they came in together with the Monarque, for the purpose of their service.

August 28. On Saturday last being the day appointed by the late Act of Common Council for the Choice of Lord Mayor (by reason that Michaelmas Day this Year fell on Sunday) the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and the Members of the several Companies being assembled at Guildhall for that purpose. The present Lord Mayor Sir Thomas Pittenger was again elected to be Lord Mayor for the year ensuing. The same day Christopher Lobbes and John Hobblon Esquires and Aldermen the new Sheriffs were sworn before the Lord Mayor and Aldermen at Guildhall; and on Monday last were presented at the Exchequer Court by the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, &c. according to a custom of London; and afterwards the Sheriffs entered and the Lord Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Officers of the Exchequer at a splendid Dinner provided for them at Drapers Hall.

Hampton Court, Septemb. 29. This day their Excellencies the Ambassadors Extraordinary from the States-General of the United Provinces, had their Audience of Leave before their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Denmark, being conducted by Sir Charles Cottrel, Master of the Ceremonies.

Hampton Court, Septemb. 30. His Majesty parted from hence this Morning for Newmarket.

Advertisements.

The Historian unmask'd: Or some Reflections on the late History of Passive Obedience. Wherein the Doctrine of Passive Obedience and Non-Resistance is truly stated and asserted. By one of those Divines, whom the Historian hath mentioned in his Book. And late Author of the Resolution of several Queries concerning Submission to the present Government. As also of an Answer to all the Popular Objections against declaring the Oath of Allegiance to their present Majesties. (Sold by the Stationer in the Old Bailey)

The young Clerks Guide, in a Part: Or an exact Collection of choice English Precedents according to the best forms now used for all sorts of Indentures, Warrants of Attorney, Releases, Conditions, &c. By the use of which and the daily use of this chiefly for those that intend to follow the Art of the Law. Compiled by Sir R. H. C. and revised by an able Practitioner. The Sixth Edition. Printed for J. Baskett, Stationer, and R. Cliffield.

Taken out of Captain Lane's House in Red-Lyon Court in Watling Street, on the 28th inst. two boxes containing a pair of silver boxes marked C. B. R. B. J. E. with several Broad Medals and Guinea's; divers Gold Rings, Medals, and ornaments; several pairs of Point, railed and flat; a white Hair-Camille; a black being lined with a Purple Racer, a Waistcoat, and a piece of Mazeline blue Cloth lined with broad silver, knotted Lace; a silver hilited Sword with a silver and gold handle, mark'd with King Charles's, King James's, and Queen Mary's Heads on the Hilt; with divers sorts of Men and Womens Apparel, Linnen, &c. to the value of 400 l. Whoever gives notice of these things to the said Capt. Lane, or to Mr. R. Bellworth in the same house, shall have 20 Guinea's reward; or proportionable for any part.

Taken on Saturday the 26th inst at night, out of a house in South Square, a large fine Face belonging to Child-bed Linnen, a Quaker Cloth, an Apron, and Nightgale, all of Point, a black handkerchief, a Twilight of green Velvet with rich gold and silver lace, a black Twilight, an Indian figured Night Gown, 2 Sets of Point Child-bed Linnen. Whoever gives notice of these things (so as they be restored) to Mr. Child, Goldsmith, near Temple-bar, shall have 5 Guinea's Reward; and proportionable for any part of them.

ONE Anthony Willis, Apprentice to Watch Worn of Tipton Lane near Chippendale in Wilt's Sherdaker, went away from his Master about a Month since, he is aged about 19; a tall thin youth, with very long straight black hair, begins in his speech with grey Cloth Cloaths, a black hat, and grey Stockings. Whoever gives notice of him to Luke Francis at the Black Lyon in White-hart-yard near St. Mary Lane, London, or to his Master aforeaid, shall be well rewarded.

A Bay Mare, about 17 hands, freight Body, smooth Limbs, with a white snip on her Nose, a Bar in her Forehead, her neck of a good before, white, horn white, spots under her Belly; her hind feet white, paces but ordinarily; frayed from Mrs. Goodling's stable door in Hedge Lane in St. Martin's in the fields, on the 30th inst. about 7 o'clock. Whoever gives notice of her to Richard Bullen, at the White-hart in the Strand, or to the best restorer, shall have a Guinea Reward and Charges.

On the 28th instant, from Kingston upon Thames, a Cheine Horse, above 14 hands and a half high, of his feet white, and a bald Face. Whoever gives notice of him to John Williams at Kingston aforeaid, shall be well rewarded.