THE METROPOLIS (FOOT - AND - MOUTH DISEASE) ORDER OF 1881.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 29th day of January, 1881.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Mr. Mundella.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Short Title.

1. This Order may be cited as The Metropolis (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Order of 1881.

Commencement.

2. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one; and shall cease to have effect from and immediately after the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, except as regards the recovery of any penalty incurred thereunder before that day.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order—

The Act of 1878 means The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878.

The Metropolitan Market, or the Market, means the Metropolitan Cattle Market at Islington, in the Metropolis, including the lairs therein.

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1878.

Markets, Fairs, Exhibitions, and Public Sales in the Metropolis.

4. No market, fair, exhibition, or sale by public auction or other public sale of animals (whether or not being fat animals intended for slaughter) shall be held in the Metropolis, except the Metropolitan Market, or a market, fair, exhibition, or sale licensed by the Local Authority of the Metropolis or of the City of London under The Markets and Fairs Temporary Order of 1881.

Special Regulations as to Metropolitan Market.

5.—(a.) Animals exposed for sale in the Metropolitan Market shall not be moved out of the Market, but shall be slaughtered within the Market, except as follows:

(b.) Animals may be moved out of the Market to a slaughter-house in the Metropolis for the purpose of being there slaughtered: or

(c.) Animals may be moved out of the Market to a lair licensed for their reception by the Privy Council, and may be kept in that licensed lair subject to conditions specified in the licence until they are taken to a slaughter-house in the Metropolis for the purpose of being there slaughtered.

(d.) Animals moved out of the Market to a slaughter-house or licensed lair shall not be again moved into the Market.

(e.) Provided that cattle, sheep, and swine so moved out of the Market shall, after their arrival at the Market, and before they are moved thereout, be marked by the owner, consignee, or other person exposing them in the Market, at his own expense, as follows:

Cattle.—By clipping the hair off the end of the tail of each of the cattle.
