*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
January 24, 1881.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 21st of February, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.

KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
January 24, 1881.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Friday, the 25th of February, at three o'clock.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Ladies who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

KENMARE,

Lord Chamberlain.

IMPORTATION OF ANIMALS (IRELAND)
ORDER, 1881.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland.

COWPER.

WHEREAS, in consequence of the prevalence in certain parts of England of Foot-and-Mouth Disease, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council passed an Order bearing date the 3rd day of January, 1881, making regulations as to markets, fairs, exhibitions, and public sales of animals in England, and imposing certain restrictions in respect thereof, and it is by the said Order provided that the said Order should commence and take effect from and immediately after the 16th day of January, 1881, and should cease to have effect from and immediately after the 28th day of February, 1881.

And whereas, it is expedient to take measures to prevent the introduction of Foot-and-Mouth Disease into Ireland.

Now, We, the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in Us vested under the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling Us in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

I. This Order may be cited as the "Importation of Animals (Ireland) Order, 1881."

II. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the 1st day of February, 1881, and shall cease to have effect from and after the 28th day of February, 1881, except as regards the recovery of any penalty incurred thereunder before that day, and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Animals (Ireland) Order.

III. It shall not be lawful to import into or land in Ireland any animals from that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain.

Given at the Council Chamber, Dullin
Castle, the 31st day of January, 1881.

W. H. F. Cogan. Robert R. Warren.

Edward Sullivan, M.R. H. Law.

Ride, Henry Walter

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage or benefice of Woolton Hill, sometime part of the parish of East Woodhay, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage or benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-seven pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and thirty-seven pounds expressed to be hereby granted, shall be reduced to a yearly sum or stipend of eighty-seven pounds upon and from the date of the avoidance of the rectory of East Woodhay aforesaid by the Reverend Thomas Douglas Hodgson, the present Incumbent thereof, when a further clear yearly sum of fifty pounds, charged in perpetuity upon the revenues and endowments of the said rectory, will become payable to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage or benefice of Woolton Hill, and to his successors, under the authority of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, dated the fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and published in the London Gazette of the fourteenth day of the same month and year: And provided further, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce a clear yearly sum of eighty-seven pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage or benefice of Woolton Hill, in substitution for the said yearly sum or stipend of eighty-seven pounds, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend of eighty-seven pounds, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of the Holy Trinity, Mile End Old Town, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the eighteenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Wooburn, in the county of Buckingham, and in the diocese of Oxford, one yearly sum or stipend of twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Wooburn aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Wooburn.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint David's, in the county of Pembroke, and in the diocese of Saint David's, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Saint David's that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parish of Saint David's aforesaid, during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parish and vicarage of Saint David's.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of a moiety of the value of certain land about to be permanently secured to the vicarage of Wilnecote, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Lichfield; do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Wilnecote, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of two hundred and seventy-seven pounds sterling, to be paid as the consideration for the conveyance to the said vicarage in fee simple, and to our satisfaction, of the whole of the land hereinbefore referred to, such capital sum to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Wilnecote.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of New Alresford, in the county of Southampton, and in the diocese of Winchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of New Alresford one capital sum of four hundred and fifty-six pounds and fourteen shillings, such capital sum to be applied by us in discharging the amounts payable to the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the augmentation and maintenance of the Poor Clergy, under two subsisting mortgages of the said vicarage, which were effected by two deeds, bearing date (respectively) the first day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, for the purpose of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of New Alresford, and of improving the same.: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the aforesaid yearly sum or stipend of sixteen pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.
(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the united benefice of All Saints, Saint Mary de Castro and Saint Mildred, in the city and county of the city of Canterbury, and in the diocese of Canterbury, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same united benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of ninety-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said united benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof; our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the united vicarages of Ranworth with Upton, in the county of Norfolk, and in the diocese of Norwich, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said united vicarages shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days in each and every year, of a certificate under the hand of the Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Bishop, has been employed within the parishes of Ranworth with Upton aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said parishes and vicarages of Ranworth with Upton, and shall in any case cease to be payable upon and from the avoidance of the said united vicarages by the Reverend John William Greaves, the present Incumbent thereof.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

In the Matter of Ebenezer Raybould, of 88, Packington-street, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, Boot-maker, a Bankrupt.

Before Mr. Registrar Brougham, sitting as Chief Judge.

UPON reading a report of the Trustee of the property of the bankrupt, dated the 17th day of December, 1880, reporting that no property of the bankrupt having ever been discovered, it was useless, according to the joint opinion of himself and the Committee of Inspection thereunto annexed under their hands, to protract the bankruptcy, as there was no hope of anything coming to the estate, now upon the application of Mr. H. Montagu, Solicitor for the Trustee, and no person appearing to oppose, and upon reading the report of the Official Assignee, dated the 17th day of January, 1881, and the affidavit of Edward Thomas Church, sworn the 12th day of January, 1881, the Court being satisfied that no property of the bankrupt could be discovered, and that it is useless to protract the bankruptcy, doth order and declare that the bankruptcy of the said Ebenezer Raybould has closed.—Given under the Seal of the Court this 27th day of January, 1881.
